

Conny Corner

We presume you have been lavishly welcomed to this our "Happy Valley" (better known as Montreal). So what are we waiting for?! We may as well give you the low-down on how to get along with the higher-uppers while you remain here.

- Rule 1. Never wear socks.
- Rule 2. Truck around Gaither in shorts.
- Rule 3. Give Cindy a good swift kick daily.
- Rule 4. "Trip" the waitresses in the dining room.
- Rule 5. Remember to pop your Juicy Furit in classes.
- Rule 6. Always run in the halls. (We don't like slow people.)
- Rule 7. Address the housemothers by their nicknames.
- Rule 8. Why ask for someone when you can YELL?
- Rule 9. There's nothing like being late wherever you go, so please do.
- Rule 10. Don't have your clothes sent from home. Wear your roommate's.
- Rule 11. Be sure to fuss about the food.
- Rule 12. Don't sign out. Let the house-mother hunt for you when you get a 'phone call.
- Rule 13. Don't forget, Miss Wade has all the time in the world to waste on giving special permission to privileged characters.
- Rule 14. Get your lessons up between classes. If you don't, when will you have time to visit, write letters, and eat?

Follow these rules to the letter, and we hope you have a "nice trip home"-- The gates are open!!

DID YOU HEAR-----

Maxine Suttle call Miss Watkins, "Nannie"? (It wasn't Sut's fault. That's the way Miss Coop introduced her.)

Carolyn Ash walk up to Cindy and say, "I see you, do you see me?" Ash should know Cindy doesn't have enough nose to keep glasses on.

Man Nettles playing "Sunday, Monday, or Always"? She really has it down pat.

Irma Swanstrom singing in the Gaither practice room? She gets better every day.

One of the new little girls run out in the hall and yell, "Manager, Manager" when her shade fell down?

Alma Riley trying out for the choir? Really, Miss Woodhouse could probably explain better what we mean.

DID YOU SEE-----

Our new set of twins, Frankie and Judy? They're cute as pie!

Helen Singleton taking a bath with a piece of candy? She thought it was a sponge!

That good looking straw hat Betty Atkins has? Well, you really must!

The boys who came up to see Sally and Kathleen?

Saxon asleep with a bird sitting on her? (The bird is cute.)

"Batts" with her hair curled? Looked nice, didn't she?
