MAY QUEEN CHOSEN

FESTIVAL OF STATES

That event we have all been waiting for is about to take place. On Saturday night, January 22, the Y. P. C. Council under the leadership of the Highway of Comradeship, will sponsor the annual Festival of States.

Each state that is represented in the school will take part in the program. Two chairmen have been appointed from each state and they are planning skits for their states. Practice began this week. The northern states which have only a few representatives in school here are joining to put on one skit.

About nineteen other states, the District of Columbia and Cuba will be represented.

There will be lots of fun for everyone at Anderson Chapel at 8 p.m., Jan. 22.

BETTY BLUE BOWERS QUEEN OF MAY
HELEN SINGLETON MAID OF HONOR

"Have you heard?"

"Sh-h-h-h-h"

"But do you know..."

"No, but I bet it's..."

"Do you really think so?"

"It might be..."

Such were the whisperings heard from corners and through halls before Monday when it was announced that the queen for the May Festival is to be Betty Blue Powers and the Maid of Honor, Helen Dawn Singleton. The air was full of squeals, congratulations, and the like when the news came out and the queen-to-be had revealed that she "felt like a million dollars."

Good friend of mine!
Betty Blue was born in Miami, Florida, and Helen in Panhandle, Texas. The girls really have a lot in common; maybe you'd like to hear a little about their early history. It seems that Betty Blue's life had a rather bleak beginning, for she is told she was born at 2 a.m. on a dark and stormy morning. And to top that, the first time her baby brother saw her, he opened his mouth and screamed! When she was about three months old, Betty Blue came to North Carolina, where in the course of almost 18 years, she has had lots of fun sprinkled with a few slightly hair-raising experiences. One of these was an incident in the laboratory at school when, one day, the teacher left the
