SUPERLATIVES CHOSEN

CUPID'S HIT PARADE

Saturday night at eight o'clock, the College Athletic Board will present Cupid's Hit Parade down at Emerson Chapel. From all expectations, Cupid's Hit Parade promises to be one of Montreat's outstanding productions of the year; and it is very timely as Valentine's Day, which Cupid holds exceedingly dear, is not far off. Cupid's Hit Parade will feature love songs down through the last half-century with arrangements differing from any you have ever seen--and heard. In fact, Cupid will enthrall and captivate your romantic heart during the whole entertainment. With his superb musical parade and his little quiver full of arrows, Cupid should not fail to make a "hit" with you.

And, since Cupid's Hit Parade is going to be such a feature attraction, Montreat's entire faculty will be there, even if not in person. Yes, their looks are somewhat different, but their comments and their mannerisms are just the same. Nevertheless, they will all be there to swoon and sway down Cupid's way. Why the faculty would not miss Cupid's Hit Parade for the world, especially with all that enchanting music. Sometime during the course of the evening, a "Queen of Hearts" will be chosen from among those visiting "teachers", and you will want to be there to help Cupid crown her.

Besides these highlights of Cupid's Hit Parade, our youthful lover will present several added attractions: There are going to be several booths, the chief among these being the food booth and the fortune-teller's booths. Then, too, you won't want to miss the cakewalk which will take place sometime within the hour.

Remember then, for an hour of fun and frolic, be sure you are on hand Saturday night, Feb. 12, when the College Athletic Board presents our Montreat's greatest musicale, Cupid's Hit Parade.
