

Campus Clippings

Well, here I am back again with more gossip about us coony pals. From all appearances, Spring seems to have established a foothold on the scene, and we're all hoping she's here to stay. I've always heard that "in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Well, I think that it could be "in the spring a young wid's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." You just ask Sue Burney, Doris Burch, Frances Gillis, or "Phon" McElfrath.

I'm beginning to believe that this warm weather (or something) has affected some of our lovely lassies. The other day, "Issie" Bailey was seen dabbing each door on her hall with perfume. When questioned, she said, "Oh, I just want our hall to be the sweetest one in Alba."

Step right this way, ladies! Just this way to the best barbershop in ontreat. With a flourish of the hand and a snip of the scissors, "George" Grier began her career as a beautician. Her willing (?) victim was Sara Dixon. Speaking of haircuts, Ruth McAbee, Farnsi Mercer and Elizabeth Fite really did a super job on theirs!

I was thinking (no kiddin') the other day about all the nicknames that float around ontreat. A few of them are: hows, Christine "Teory" Wilson, Billie "William B." Jones, Edna "Cler" McCracken.

DID YOU---

Ever go on one of Betty Adkins and Ann Dickelsiver's hikes? They're all the stuff. When you feel the need of exercise, just sign up with them!

Hear Dot McIntyre and "Bill" Grady going to town on "Deacon Jones"? They really have it down pat.

Hear about Mickey Luman's accident last Sunday? Ask her or Libby Jane Ervin to tell you all the particulars.

Hear about Evelyn B. Jon's surprise birthday party? They really had a trous and time!

Know that the average floss cannot be taught to play the piano? Hey, how did that get in here?

Hear about Virginia Barber and Betty Edward's putting a mouse in Juan Hobbins shoe? Don't get excited. It was only a toy one.

Jane Smith: "What are you taking for your cold?"

Jean McCuteren: "I don't know. Like no an offer."

Did you hear about the little moron who stuffed his ears with cotton when he took a bath so he couldn't hear the ring in the tub?

I think I'll sign off here. So long til next time when I'll be around again telling more tales about the capers of the campus.
