Congratulations! Keep it up!

Do you go in for lots of fun and heaps of laughs? Then this is just for you. How about a chorus of beautiful girls who will knock you out with hits of yesterday and today? Or a glimpse of your favorite swoon crooner; Guess who? Would you like to be the first P. C.'s to watch the famous Dr. Art Lesswork perform his daring feat of removing a human intestine right before your very eyes? Or do you prefer old fashioned corn that would make Bob Hope lay down his toothbrush to listen? And of course everyone likes to eat! So whatever your dish, even if it is out of season, come down to Anderson Chapel on the night of February 10, and you'll get it.

The occasion is the annual entertainment presented to the student body by the members of the Freshman College class. This year the program will consist of a variety show, which rumors say will really live up to its name. This is a "must", so put on your glad rags, grab your best beau (?) and join your friends for an evening that is guaranteed to raise your spirits.

HIGH SCHOOL DRAMATICS PLAY

The Angell Brats, a three act comedy, will be presented by the High School Dramatics class tonight, Jan. 29. This will be a highly entertaining play about an absent minded professor, Anna Belle Bubank, distracted by the fact that, unless he wishes to be disinherited by his wealthy uncle, he must "commit matrimony" before his 40th birthday. Three rivals for his affection will be played by Liera Jones, Norma Hill, and Allena Dogget; Cousin Ruth to be played by Jeanette Herndon, will come in for an important part in the last act of the play. The professor's provocative "brats" will be played by Rene Gibbs, Freddie Mc Masters, and Laurel Weir. A surprise ending will complete an enjoyable entertainment, full of plenty of laughs and fun.
