Kappa Pi Beta

"To cultivate appreciation of literary work, to promote encouragement of studying great writers and their works, and to encourage creative writing among the members is the purpose of the Kappa Pi Beta Literary Society for college girls. Printed below is a poem written by Jan Heizer, a member of the Kappa Pi Beta:

A Prayer

Almighty God, whom angels praise,
 We thank Thee for thy loving care;
 We thank Thee for the wondrous days;
 We thank Thee for the world so fair.

Whenever we in trouble are
 To Thee, O God, we come for help,
 And Thou art always near--not far,
 To Thee we prayerfully give ourself.

Mrs. Farrior Speaks

On November 7, 1945, Montreat students had the privilege of hearing a very fine speaker in chapel. She was Mrs. S. C. Farrior, one of Montreat's own citizens. Mrs. Farrior was a missionary to China for about 30 years. In 1941, after coming home for a rest, she returned to China only a few months before Pearl Harbor. After Pearl Harbor, she and Mr. Farrior were put into a Japanese internment camp. They finally got passage to America on the Gripslohm in 1943. They bought Dr. Archer's house in Montreat and have been Montreat citizens for a short time. Mr. Farrior is planning to go back to China this winter to be the mission treasurer in Shanghai. Mrs. Farrior will join him as soon as she is able to get a passport. During the chapel period on November 7, Mrs. Farrior taught us a song which is very popular in China and is becoming popular in America. The tune is catchy and the words have a meaning for all of us. She told us that the Chinese soldiers sing this song as they march. To help teach this song to the other students, Patsy Crutchfield, Doris Royster, Faith May, and Lenore Orr sang and helped Mrs. Farrior in leading it. This is the song that we learned:

Unafraid

I will not be afraid.
 I will not be afraid.
 I will look upward,
 And travel onward,
 And not be afraid.

He says He will be with me.
 He says He will be with me.
 He goes before me,
 And is beside me,
 So I'm not afraid.

His arms are underneath me.
 His arms are underneath me,
 His hand upholds me;
 His love enfolds me,
 So I'm not afraid.

His word will stand for ever.
 His word will stand for ever.
 His truth it shall be
 My shield and buckler,
 So I'm not afraid.
