Life With a Montreat Girl

Valentine's Day will be here, soon. Don't let your fellow be a "Sleepy Lagoon." He'll send you "Candy" (with Hearts that say) Please be my Valentine, today! Since you're the receiver of this lovely gift, you have to refresh your words which start, "I Can't Begin To Tell You" and end "Always," "Yours." Now, as we go strolling "Down(es)" the "Hill," (what time we aren't blown by the "West" wind) we run into a "Hunter" without a "Head." But, that Hunter is a "Shur-man." All of a sudden, we give a "Star(t)-ling" shriek for fear of the "P(rat)t" which is at our feet. He made my blood flash through my "Vanes." My "Lad(d)!" Don't turn "Brown" over such a little "Pearce." While trying to cool off, my "Hart" is playing Hop-"Scott." I hope we don't have another such "Hedd-on", today.

In the meantime, we heard there was going to be a make-up practice at the gymnasium, which is a "Schwenky" place. We decided to "Wade" in the "Brook" on our way down.

Upon arriving on the "Wakefield," the "Pyla(n)t" of the great "Schlingoff" team "Hooked" a basket, "Casteen" two points. The "Sugg" got a "Charlie" in her "Leg(get)" and Dr. "Adams" was commanded to "Lance" it at once. Sugg yelled, "Flee-man!"

During the exciting game, we realized quite a few famous spectators including, Shirley (Smith) Temple, Dorothy (Kenworthy) Lamour, Betty (Epting) Davis, Gloria (Gilbert) de Haviland, Judy (Briggs) Canova, Helen (Fomby) Hayes, and (Sherill) Sheridan, and Humphrey (Armistead) Bogart.

It's almost time for "Male" (Mc)"Call." Got several letters from "Frankie" (?) "Bill," "Johnny," "Pete," and Owen. But, the sad part is that all of them aren't men.

Now, we gotta go to the cafeteria, which is surrounded by "Anderson," "Fellowship," and "Gate." Here, we have "Cartwright" trays, the dishes being corn on the "Cobb," "Bacon," "Hogs-Head," "Chick"-en, "Brown Betty," and other delicious foods. We obtain our water from the "Fountain."

But! Before we retire we have to encounter two hours of "Hard" "Knox" in the "Brig."

Before long, it's time to "Turner" in for another day—so, "I'll Be Seeing You," and "Dream" "Till the End of Time."

Dear Mom:

I'm at Ptomaine Tavern singing the song of the Montreat hash-slingers, "Waiting for the Trays to Come In." The only trouble is they all have dirty dishes on them. But here comes one that has a little bit of everything and is nicely balanced, too. Pat Shoaf is someone who always smiles at everybody over her dinner tray. Who wouldn't want to keep house with a dish like that?

The latest song hit here now is "Blue and Cold in old Montreat." Sometime I'm going to bring some Missouri ground-hogs up here. These in North Carolina are afraid of their shadow and now we'll have six more weeks of Montreat mud. The students opinion on our changeable weather is as variable as its sun and rain. Doris Vasquez predicts, "Chili today; hot Tamale. Phyllis Anderson fishes for a handkerchief and mutters darkly. "Spring may be just around the corner, but the corner is a log ways off."

Lots of girls are getting Valentine boxes of candy from their one and only but the queerest ones being sent to these said: "Romeos are two hearts which originally came from a dissected perch." Apparently biology has its humorous moments too.

Classes are about the same. In history we learned that scalawags are of no relation to polywogs or tadpoles and that Sherman was right about the Civil War—especially when one studies it at Montreat.

But my letter is about ended. I still have a humor column to write tonight, too.

Love,
CORNELIA.

"Fine car you have there, Groves. What's the most you've gotten out of it?"

Groves: "Nine times in one block."—"The Blue and Gray."
