

Remember?

It was early one Monday morning, When out of my room I flew.
My hair was in ten pigtails, (quite stylish 'tis true) Tied with ribbons galore, without any bobby pins, My lips were unpainted, no technicolor grins.

Just upon arrival at the bottom of the stairs,
Who should appear? but "Old Board Members" by pairs!
Remember your duty and respect, to say,
"You are my great superior, I am your inferior, I make myself humble and obedient before you."
Be humble and obedient more every day.

My clothes were on backwards, and wrongside out, Whenever people saw us, they'd laugh and shout!
Just wait until Friday; we'll show all of you—
What a real, genuine egg shampoo we can do!

My twin greets me that morning right at the door,
"Get busy you slave and mop the floor," Or "polish my shoes, and do them nice"
"Make up the bed or you'll pay the price." You're an "old Board Member, if you're popular, admit Because you autograph daily, each new one must get Initiations are swell and unforgettable too—Just ask the New Members! They will tell you.

NUTS AND BOLTS

Gaither Hall seemed strangely deserted as I entered its air conditioning door. Something was drastically wrong, I thought, puzzled. Oh! Now I had it. There were no people. No chattering group at the bulletin board, no impatient line at Miss Wade's door, and, to make the situation even more peculiar, I couldn't even hear Jean Webster's voice shattering the silence—or the ears of the dean. Over in one dark corner there was a wretched bit of humanity mumbling and mut-

SPORTS

Montreat H. S. Girls Recalls Events of Sports Calendar

As I sit here with my worn, but ever-good scrapbook of Montreat memories, there are many things that stand out vividly in the Sports Section. Let's look back.

The road we're travelling starts out a deep green, and its September. Everyone is getting to know everyone else better, and the best meeting place is the soccer field.
Soccer is new to you, but because you're a Montreat Girl you learn how to play—and what's more you make the team. It's a great life here at school and you make it greater by playing in the November 3rd night game between the Seniors and Juniors (the Seniors won). As we ride along memory lane the trees are gradually changing; and you love the fall colors. Thanksgiving, there is another exciting game. The "M" Club vs. Varsity, with the "M" Club winning. The latter part of November the "M" Club played the College. The yellow and white tribe colors of the Chichassaws proclaimed the winners.

Oh, I almost forgot something else that was outstanding in November. Remember that Monday, November 5, when so many of us viled into trucks and went bouncing merrily on our way to Mount Mitchell, and then hiked up the mountainside to the top? For many it was the first trip to Mitchell, and they'll never forget that pretty little forest and the sights on top.

Burr!! our road seems to be getting winterier and winterier doesn't it? Every now and then we run into a snowstorm. Right before Christmas we find ourselves in the midst of Indoor Sports. Chinese Checkers, Porchesi, and horseshoes play important parts in this event.

Surely the next bump in the road couldn't be good ole basketball, could it? The January 19th college Board vs. Faculty game was simply a scream, and its rare-ness will long be remembered.
Then our "M" Club played the College—That, too, was a great game! Then on March 2nd the "M" Club played the Varsity, and again was victorious. The red and white Apache colors floated this time.

Oh, another rut, and we're pulling up at Volleyball Lane. Some games were indoors; others, outdoors. Remember "Referee Jean" as she sat on her tall ladder trying to keep track "of it all." The Chickasaws were again the tournament winners.

Then on the night of April 6th came to the board installation.
There were two fires—one Signifying the old board and the other the new. April the 16th was the date of the Board's "Bon Bon Land." Remember "Bon Bon," "Caramel," and that scarey "Spirit of Cocoa-Cola?" Hungry?

Well, friends, we're come to "Spring Oasis," and again our road is getting much greener.
Baseball is over, too. It's almost May 20th and the end of the year.
Dear me, I do believe I see a tear sneaking meekly down your cheek.
I know why that lil' tear is there.
(What's more, I'll bet there are more on the way.) Its there because down deep inside of you you know you've had a wonderful year —and somehow you just hate for it all to end. You've loved the girls on your tribe and all the others are swell, too. Now, I've finished my scrapbook of memories. Its late, and I'm sleepy; I'm going to put the teeth out, brush the cat, wind the bed, and get into the clock.

SPANISH CLUB HAS ELECTIONS

The Spanish Club met April 6, 1946, to elect their officers for the coming year. The election was as follows President, Jean Dingus; vice-president, Alice Poyser; secretary, Victoria Samburg.

The members extend congratulations to the new officers, and feel sure they will be of great service to the Spanish students.

The Iranian flag consists of stripes of pale green, symbolizing Mohammedanism; white, for peace and red, for courage and sacrifice.

Clyburne And Other Board Members Installed

Saturday night, April 28 at 9:30 in Central Park, the new members of the College Athletic Association were installed.

For the ceremony there was a large fire in the center of the circle of girls from which the torches of the old members were lighted and they in turn lighted the torches of the ones who were to take their place. Doris Royster turned over office of President to Jo Clyburn. After this they sang "Auld Lang Syne" and threw their torches on the fire, which blazed high and spread its bright light over the park. The old and new members then sang the Board song.

Doris was formerly vice-president, but became president at the beginning of the second semester when the president withdrew from school.

Jo served on the Board during the term 45-46 as treasurer and is now at the head of the organization. Jean Graham, new vice-president, served on the Board this year as Navajo tribe chief.
Mary Penny served this year as Co-Hiker and during the 46-47 term she will serve as Secretary to the organization.

The other members, who are on for the first time are: Treasurer, Nell Thompson; Cheer Leader, Jean Webster; Co-Hikers, Virginia Thompson and Anne McClintock; Tennis, Rachel Laney; Basketball, Florence Mitchell; Volleyball, Evelyn Wallace; Softball, Nancy Hill; Tribe Chiefs—Cherokee, Anne Browning; Hiwassee, Charity Henderson; Mohawk, Frances Tucker; Choctaw, Nellie Watts; Navajo, Sue Burney; and Publicity, Mabel Elliott.

The Board sponsor is Miss Ruth Parrior.

Nina—"The last time I sang, my voice fell on thousands of ears."

Wanda—"And where were you singing?"

Nina—"In a cornfield."
