Vol. 12, No. 7

MONTREAT COLLEGE

April 25, 1947

ELECTIONS FOR 1947-48 TAKE PLACE

RODRIAN WILL LEAD STUDENT BODY

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENED:

Because of ill health our printer in Black Mountain, Mr. Cunningham, had to give up his work. For this reason, this issue of the Dialette could not be printed. We hope to have things in line by next month and a fine last issue of the paper for you.

DOT JEAN'S RECITAL

On April 12, at 8:00 p.m., Montreat College presented Miss Dorothy Jean Sandefer in her Senior Recital, assisted by Miss Ida Lou Gibson, Soprano.

Miss Sandefer's brunette beauty was set off by an ice-blue satin gown. Her flowers were pink roses. Miss Gibson was becomingly attired in black and white. Her flowers were red carnations.

The first part of the program consisted of "Prelude in E flat Minor" by Bach and "Sonata Pathetique, Op. 13", "Grave-Allegro de Malto", "Adagio Cantabile", and "Allegro" by Beethoven.

During the intermission, a large basket of varied flowers was presented. Miss Sandefer and red roses were given to Miss Lord.

The second part of the program was three solos by Miss Ida Lou Gibson, Soprano. "Alleluia" by Mozart, "The Little Shepherd Song" by Watts, and "The Blue Danube" by Strauss-Liebling.

The last part of the program consisted of "Polanaise in C sharp Minor" by Chopin, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "Rondo Capriccioso", by Mendelssohn-Beach, "From a Log Cabin" and "Hungarian" by MacDowell.

RODRIAN

On Tuesday night, April 8, the new Cabinet for the coming year was installed. Joan Rodrian of Bluefield, West Virginia, a junior and house-president of Fellowship, will serve as student body president next year. Succeeding Dorothy Jean Sandefer in this office, she will preside over meetings of the Cabinet and lead student government on the campus.

Working with her as vice-president is Helen Cassell of Roanoke, Virginia. This year Helen has been a house-president in the Inn.

Jo Anne Heizer of Rawlins, Virginia, was elected president of the College Athletics Board. She was on the Board this year and was also chairman of the Spiritual Life Group.

Our new editor for the Staff of Student Publications is Mabel Lee Wells of Cynthiana, Kentucky. She has had experience on both the Cabinet and the Staff, having been Secretary of the Cabinet this year and Editor-in-Chief of the S. P. S. in her sophomore year.

Gladys Goodman of Mooresville, North Carolina, is the new president of the College Christian Youth Fellowship. She held this same office in her sophomore year.

The house-presidents for next year are: Ruby Browning, Carey Lee Pratt, and Mary Katherine Wood. Ruby and Mary Katherine are serving on the second and third floors of the Inn, respectively. Carey Lee is at Fellowship.
