

Bride and Brides - Elect Entertained By Faculty

On Wednesday evening, May 4, Misses Hoyt, Miles, Smith, and Webb entertained the Faculty at a shower in honor of Mrs. Francis Wyly, a recent bride, and Misses Haney and Hillman, brides-elect. The Adams Music Building was tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

The guests participated in a contest which was a brief romance narrated by filling in blanks with the names of flowers. The honorees then drew numbers, and several gifts were distributed. The rest of the gifts were placed in baskets, and the honorees drew from them in turn. At the conclusion of the drawing, the gifts were unwrapped and displayed.

The hostesses then invited the guests to the dining room. On a lace-covered table, centered with a bowl of spring flowers, there were plates with ice cream and cake, and dishes of mints and nuts. Delicious punch was served with the refreshments.

CHEF TILLER SHOWS HIS HAND

The people who gathered at Montreat for the May Day Program had something more in store for them than an hour's entertainment. Following the exercises in honor of Queen Ann, the audience went, almost as a body, to the Inn where they gasped again almost as a body, at the sumptuous supper decked in holiday attire.

Chef Tiller with his kitchen staff, had covered a table with the most delectable cold dishes imaginable. It was a Smorgasbord Supper — Montreat's first.

"But, after all, girls," said Mrs. Tiller, "May Day comes only once a year!"

Literary Club Winds Up Busy Year

The Kappa Pi Beta seems to have been in the lime-light for the past few weeks.

It is proud to announce the following officers for the coming year: President, Betty Martin; Vice-President, Jerry Ford; Secretary, Mary McGill; and Treasurer, Charlotte Burgess.

On Monday, May 2, the entire club was entertained in the Sun Parlor of the Assembly Inn at a party given by Miss Fronde Kennedy. The room was attractively decorated, the motif being birds. The group was smilingly informed by Dr. Kennedy that they would have bird pie. The pie consisted of birds' names with the letters scrambled, from which the correct name was to be spelled. The results produced weird sounding names.

Cake, coffee, and ice cream were served. As a memo of a lovely evening, each guest was presented with a tiny glass bird.

On May 7, the Kappa Pi Beta conducted the morning chapel. The theme of the program was MOTHER'S DAY. Ten selected contributions were read at this time by their authors. The contributions consisted of poems and essays, both serious and humorous.

Annual Dedicated To Miss E. Hoyt

"I believe the S.P.S. has charge of the rest of the program this morning," said Miss Hoyt. The S.P.S.? On current events day? No news? The door at the right opened — Lib Miller? Frances Brown? Miss Watkins? A strange gentleman?? What does it mean? Then—a murmur broke through the silence. "The annuals are here." "Oh, grand, the annuals have come"—and then, an outburst of hand clapping as Mr. Mitchell, the SUN DIAL printer, rose to speak and to present to Miss Watkins the first copy of the 1949 SUN DIAL, of white and gold.

Miss Watkins then in turn presented a copy to Lib, who read the dedication poem—"to a teacher whose sense of humor makes the hard tasks seem easy." It could be Miss Hoyt. "To a class sponsor," Lib reads on, "Who counsels with wisdom and understanding." "Oh yes — Miss Hoyt," say the Seniors. "To a dean whose ideals inspire broader and higher living," continues Lib. It must be Miss Hoyt. "To a lady who serves others efficiently, patiently, and graciously," — it is Miss Hoyt—"with high respect and deep ap-

S.C.A. Members Are Honored By Sponsor

Miss Anderson entertained the new members and the ex-president of the Student Christian Association at a dinner in Assembly Inn at 6:00 o'clock on May 19.

The table was decorated with yellow flowers and candles; tiny nut cups and place cards added to the charm and the serenity of the atmosphere.

Miss Anderson is the sponsor for the council.

Wright Elected President Of El Circulo Espanol

El Circulo Espanol met in Gaither, Monday evening, May 9. Dot Wright was chosen to succeed Mary Ruth Denman as President. It was decided to elect the other officers next year, when the new members are taken into the club.

Appreciation for her loyalty to Montreat College, we dedicate the 1949 SUN DIAL to — yes, of course—MISS ELIZABETH HOYT. And amid cheers and applause Miss Hoyt was presented her copy.

At the conclusion of the program, the Staff members filed on to the stage and there, with broad smiles on their faces, sang joyously the Staff song.

The Seniors Go A - PARTYING

By Virginia Wood

On Sunday afternoon, Winsborough Porch was the scene of an informal tea given by the Senior Class, honoring Lib Miller, bride-to-be. After the entire class with the sponsor, Miss Hoyt, had gathered together, at an appropriate time, Lucille Vaught presented Lib with a butter spreader matching her silver pattern, a gift from the Seniors.

The Seniors were at it again Monday night, a theater party being the occasion. The class as a group attended "Little Women," a picture to bring back reminders of the book they had read years before they even considered becoming college seniors.

Mrs. McGregor is entertaining with a reception for the Seniors at her home Saturday afternoon.

Following the play, Saturday night, the members of the class will be hostesses at a reception to be given in honor of the Mothers of the Seniors who are in Montreat for commencement week-end. The class plans to hold the reception on Winsborough Porch, and a green and white color scheme will be used for the decorations and refreshments.
