

The Dialette

VOL. 16, NO. 3.

MONTREAT COLLEGE, MONTREAT, NORTH CAROLINA

NOVEMBER, 1950

Seniors Chosen As Four Superlatives

After much deliberation, the final selections of the superlatives of the senior class were made by the student body. Because there are so many gifted seniors this year, it was a very hard task, but here are the results, the four chosen as best of the graduating class of 1951.

Betty Martin was selected from a number of fine Christian girls to bear the title, TRUE SPIRITUAL VISION. Betty, who is the vice-president of the S. C. A., lets her light shine all over the campus, and Christ is certainly manifesting Himself through her.

GRACIOUSNESS was bestowed on tall and attractive Pat Harley. Pat, who always has a cheery smile and a friendly word for everyone she meets, is certainly worthy of this honor. This, plus her leadership abilities, makes her a grand president of the senior class.

Jane Holt is truly deserving of her title, JOY IN LEARNING, and she was accorded this crown unanimously by her fellow students. Jane, the Editor-in-Chief of the S. P. S. is a vivacious and energetic girl and always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone.

"The best things always come in small packages." This can truthfully be said of SPORTSMANSHIP, Alice Wardlaw. Alice, the president of the Athletic Association, is really a good sport in everything. Not only on the athletic field does she show the fine qualities of a good sport, but she also displays sportsmanship in the daily classroom and in her social life.

There, you have the cream of the crop. Hats off to you, Superlatives — we congratulate you! And to the student body—your choices were indeed wise ones!

Patronize Our Advertisers!

Know The Alumnae

The students of Montreat College will be delighted to see so many of the alumnae back for homecoming on Thanksgiving. We know that the upper classmen are interested in knowing what most of them are doing now that their college days are over, and the freshmen want to know more about all the wonderful people they will meet during the homecoming festivities.

Here are a few notes of interest about the graduates from the class of '49.

PATRICIA COX is a student at W. C. in Greensboro.

PAULINE HAGEN, who, until recently had been teaching at the high school in Reidsville, North Carolina, is trying for a commission in the women's division of the Marines.

MILDRED JONES is teaching in Virginia.

ANNE McCLINTOCK is teaching commercial subjects in Williston, S. C.

EDITH MURPHY is teaching history in Marion, North Carolina.

ELIZABETH MILLER is now Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Stricklar, and as if that weren't enough, she is secretary to the dean at Sweetbriar.

CAREY LEE PRATT has also married and is now Mrs. Floyd Shelton.

VICTORIA SAMBURG is Director of Religious Education at the first Presbyterian Church in Martinsville, Virginia.

SILVIA SANCHEZ is doing office work in Cuba.

LUCILLE VAUGHT is teaching in Reidsville, North Carolina.

BETTY WHITTLE is in nurses' training at the University Hospital at the University of Virginia.

Now for last year's class — the class of '50.

BETTY ATTWOOD is working in Atlanta, Georgia, for Miss Janie McGaughey.

—Turn to Page 2

Thanksgiving Plans Are Announced

Miss Mildred B. Allen Is New Secretary

The student body welcomes an old Montreat girl back to home. Miss Mildred B. Allen, new secretary to Dr. McGregor, attended Montreat High School in 1939 and 1940. After her graduation in 1940, she attended Mitchell Junior College. Upon completion of her schooling at Mitchell, Miss Allen journeyed down into St. Petersburg, Florida, where she worked for the big newspaper, the TIMES, for three years.

Naturally her talents were soon uncovered and so she joined the Florida State Advertising Commission, where she was a staff writer and field director of photography for national magazines and syndicates. Even in the past eighteen months, she has hardly had time to catch her breath for she has been a student of the Florida Everglades.

So you see, Miss Allen has really accomplished a great deal since she bade Montreat a fond farewell in 1940. We know you will be an asset to Montreat, Miss Allen, and we sincerely hope that you are as glad to BE back as we are to WELCOME you back.

Faculty Members Attend N. C. College Conference

On November 8 and 9, Dr. J. R. McGregor, Dean Joe Ed Hollis, Mr. John Miller, and Mrs. Tallulah J. Maund attended the meeting of the Annual North Carolina College Conference held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel in Winston-Salem. Dr. McGregor, in chapel one morning, told us of some of the interesting events that took place. The others who attended have given many favorable comments about the discussions they had, and of the entertainment at Salem College.

One of the most important days during the year at Montreat is Thanksgiving Day. It is a day to which faculty, students, and alumnae all look forward. This year Thanksgiving here is especially important, for it marks the establishing by the Class of '51 of the annual Homecoming.

This year Thanksgiving, November 23, begins appropriately with a regular church service at 9:30 A.M. in Gaither Chapel. Mr. Williams will conduct the special service.

At eleven o'clock, the Montreat School will have a soccer game on the athletic field. The "M" Club of the School will play the varsity team.

For the alumnae who have returned to revisit familiar scenes, there will be an Alumnae Luncheon at 12:30 P. M. at the Assembly Inn. There will also be a tea for the alumnae in Howerton Hall from 4 to 5.

After lunch, at 2 o'clock, the college will have its soccer game. The "M" Club of the college will play the varsity team.

Climaxing an exciting and full day will be the annual Thanksgiving Banquet at 7:00 P. M. in Assembly Inn. The banquet will be either formal or semi-formal. The banquet this year is in charge of the Senior Class. The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Walter F. Dickson.

This year Thanksgiving promises to be one of the most enjoyable and inspirational Montreat has ever had — perhaps it will even be the best.

WELCOME ALUMNAE

We couldn't have nicer guests for our Thanksgiving activities.