

The Dialette

The DIALETTE is the official newspaper of Montreat College, and is published monthly by the Staff of Student Publications. Its purpose is to give the student a fair and unprejudiced view of campus life.

STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ----- Jane Holt
 Associate Editor ----- Jolene Parks
 Business Manager ----- Betty Marshall
 Literary Editor ----- Charlotte Burgess
 Advertising Managers ----- Frances Curry, Evelyn Hennessee

EDITORIAL STAFF

News Editor ----- Colleen Story
 Reporters ----- Elizabeth Clodfelter, Joan Douglas
 Feature Editors ----- Elinor Ammons, Margaret Boseman
 Sports Editor ----- Terry Kane
 Art and Publicity ----- Patricia Williamson

BUSINESS STAFF

Typists ----- Faye Britt, Pat Conger, Elizabeth Whitlock
 Assistant Advertising Manager ----- Joan Guthrie

SPONSOR — Dr. Fronde Kennedy

Lift Thine Eyes

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

"I will lift up mine eyes" — what a glorious way to begin the day! When we lift our eyes as we stand on the porch of the Lakeside Building early in the morning, a panorama of beauty meets our gaze. Mountain peaks surround us. Can't you feel God's protection in those hills? The rain spatters on the lake and the surface sparkles and dances. On a clear morning the blueness of the sky is reflected in the mirror like water. Just now the loveliness of the trees is almost breathtaking.

What do we see in all this beauty? Do we see water, hills, clouds simply as water, hills, and clouds? Or do we see them as God's handiwork, evidence of His majesty and power?

How many times have we risen and started the day confident in the sufficiency of our own strength, only to find at the end of the day that we have accomplished very little?

We had subconsciously said that morning: "I can do it alone; I have education, I am young, and youth can do anything." Whence came the mental capacity to learn? Who gave us our life? God—the same God who can and will give us more than sufficient strength if we but call on Him.

At Morning Watch there is a time for meditation on some part

NOVEMBER PARTY

November gave a party
 The leaves by thousands came;
 The oak, the maple and the birch
 And leaves of ev'ry name.
 Violet (red and yellow-gold
 And even green ones too,
 Waltzing and whirling as they danced,

While the wind in rhythm blew.
 But now the wind's abated,
 The leaves have settled down,
 Jack Frost came tripping from the North

And turned them all to brown.
 Next year there'll be another show
 And other leaves will prance.
 They'll wind and twist and rise and fall
 And rustle as they dance.

—Anonymous

of God's Word and for private prayer, a time to lift our eyes unto the hills from whence cometh our help, for our "help cometh from the Lord."

You have the privilege of having your own Morning Watch service each morning on the porch of the Lakeside Building. You should appreciate the opportunity of communing privately with God, and you are urged to visit Lakeside at any time that it is convenient for you.

RICE'S QUALITY STORE

DRY GOODS & NOTIONS
 READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHES
 Corner State St. Montreat Road

KNOW THE ALUMNAE

From Page 1

MIRTA BORGES, as of course everyone knows, is doing post-graduate work here in Montreat College, while she teaches Spanish in the high school and directs the choir for the first Presbyterian Church in Black Mountain.

JANET BOUND is secretary to Miss Holmes, Dean of Students, here at Montreat College.

ETHEL BLUE BRITT is teaching.

FRANCES BROWN is the Director of Religious Education at the Windsor Avenue Presbyterian Church in Bristol, Tennessee.

FLORENCE BUCKNER teaches home economics in Marion, N. C.

MARY LILY BURGESS works with the young people at the First Presbyterian Church in Greer, S. C.

CATHERINE BYRUM is posting cash at the Duke Power Company in Charlotte, N. C.

DORCAS CONNELLY teaches in Pleasant Gardens, N. C.

MARY RUTH DENMAN works in the bank in Cleveland, Tennessee.

ALYENE DRAPER is attending Assembly's Training School in Richmond, Virginia.

MARY BLAND DUNBAR teaches Bible in Clarkton, North Carolina.

ELEANOR ENLOE is working toward her master's degree at Duke University.

KATHERINE GROSECLOSE is a church secretary at the Presbyterian Church in Roanoke, Virginia.

MARY MCGILL is teaching in College Park, Georgia.

RACHEL MCGILL is teaching at the Wacommaw School in Asheville, North Carolina.

HERENIA MORALES is teaching English in Puerto Rica.

MARJORIE ROBERTSON is teaching in Stony Creek, Virginia.

CHARLOTTE ROTH is working with the Navy Department in Washington, D. C.

JEANETTE SPELLMAN is now Mrs. Ishmeal Andrade and lives in Decatur, Georgia, where her husband is attending Columbia Theological Seminary.

MARGERY WASHBURN is the church secretary in her home church in Decatur, Illinois.

EVAN WRENN is teaching the

GIFTS PRESENTED

Within the past few weeks, Montreat has been favored with two wonderful gifts which she will cherish always. Mr. William Russell, instructor in the department of Science, has presented an album, "I Can Hear It Now," to the history department. The album is a series of recorded speeches and events leading up to World War II, and eventually to the organization of the United Nations. The history students certainly do appreciate this kind gesture of Mr. Russell, and it will be a real source of interest to them as they study the world affairs.

Dean Holmes presented to the Student Body two lovely etchings on behalf of her friend, the Countess Laura di Carpegna, of Venezia, Italy. The Countess was a personal friend of Miss Holmes while she was with the Red Cross in Africa. These pictures will be hung in Dean Holmes' office, where all students may see them often.

DAILY DOZEN

1. A little Patience — once a day.
2. A bit of Self-Control—somewhere.
3. A minute of Unselfishness.
4. A flash of Generosity.
5. One Kind Word — possibly two.
6. A word of Appreciation to somebody.
7. An eager Excuse — for someone else.
8. One Good Deed — not left undone.
9. A noble Thought — perhaps a Text.
10. A little Prayer — for a friend in need.
11. A sudden Smile — where it can do some good.
12. A snatch of Song — or hum a tune.

"Exercise thyself unto Godliness."

I Timothy 4:7

—Anonymous

fifth grade at Seven Springs, North Carolina.

IN BLACK MOUNTAIN
 IT IS The REXALL STORE
 "WELCOME"