ED'S NOTES

One of the more difficult tasks of an Editor is that of choosing the new Staff members. because in doing so, some excellent Staff material must always be eliminated. We had SO many good entries, and we sincerely wish that we could have chosen all of you. Thank you so much for trying out.

Congratulations to Frances Davis and Ann Fenton, our new assistant house presidents.

Our Subscription Drive is in full swing. If you know of someone who would enjoy receiving the Dialectte, please let them know that nine issues may be had for the asking—and $1.00.

We are happy to know that the monthly birthday dinners are on the social calendar again this year. Miss Buchanan is chairman of the "Birthday Dinner Committee" so these occasions will certainly be well-planned and enjoyable.

Miss Betty Maxwell, our new Staff Sponsor, and every member of the Staff have already realized how very much we owe Dr. Kennedy for her many years of guidance and inspiration. Although we are in capable hands and our work is going smoothly, we miss you, Dr. Kennedy. Won't you continue to let us come

Memorial To Mrs. Dixon

A service of dignity, reverence, and simplicity was that held at Montreat, N. C., Friday, September 4, at 4 p. m.

The Crosby Adams Fine Arts Building, a cherished monument of the expressions of a people for music and the school, was again the scene of a beautiful memorial ceremony. A room was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Alice Hall Dixon, a member of the original building committee.

Miss Evelyn Jackson of Atlanta, Ga., committee chairman, called the meeting to order and introduced Dr. J. Rupert McGregor, who conducted the program.

Dr. McGregor opened the program with prayer and delivered the principal address. Miss Mirta Borges of the Montreat College faculty rendered an inspiring solo, "Bless This House." A portrait of Mrs. Dixon was unveiled by her daughter, Miss Anne Dixon of Belmont. A bound book of letters of appreciation of Mrs. Dixon written by her many friends was placed in the room, and a lovely plaque bearing her name was attached to the door of the room.

The ceremonies closed with the singing of Mrs. Dixon's favorite hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds."

The memory of the beloved member of the building committee will always be cherished when her friends, loved ones, and those to follow in succeeding generations—those who appreciate and value fine art and music—enter the Crosby Adams Fine Arts Building.

BELK, HOLT CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Dr. Belk has had conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Rollins College; he is now pastor of St. Gile's Church in Richmond, one of the leading churches of the city.

Dr. Holt received his Ph.D. degree from Peabody Teachers' College, and in 1928 Tusculum College conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity upon him. He is now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Jacksonville, Fla.

to you sometimes and draw on your tremendous store of knowledge?

May we take this opportunity to thank both the faculty and student body for their splendid cooperation and patience when the annual pictures were being taken. It makes us more determined than ever to make the 1952 SUN DIAL a book of which you will really be proud.

Sponsors And Officers

Classes have been reorganized for the year, with the sponsors and class officers being elected.

The Seniors selected Mr. Bob Thatcher for their very capable sponsor. Working with him and Pat Williamson, the president, will be Juanita Combs, Ruth McKay, and Martha Holman—vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

The girls of the Junior class chose Miss Betty Maxwell again; she sponsored them as sophomores last year and proved to be a most outstanding leader. Pat Williams was elected president, with D. J. Warren, Helen Duke, and Frances Davis serving as the other class officers.

The choice of the Sophomore Class is Mr. Fred Brewer. He is one whom we all like, and we welcome him back to our Montreat family. Carolyn Fritts leads this class with the assistance of Joan Douglas, Betty Mebane, and Helen Johnson.

Miss Margaret Smith serves as the guiding light for the Frosh for her third consecutive year, but the class officers have not yet been chosen.

We are all confident that this will be a grand year with the leaders that have been chosen by the student body.

Robert Thatcher Organizes College Dramatics Club

Thirty girls attended the meeting held on September 18, and thus became charter members of Montreat College's newly-organized Dramatics Club. If there are others who are interested in taking part in this very worthwhile campus activity, they are urged to come to its next meeting on October 2. After this meeting, opportunity for membership will be closed.

The club is under the direction of Mr. Robert Thatcher. His ability and experience in Dramatics prove that he will be a most capable leader.

Mary Jane Gillespie was elected to be the club's president, while Virginia Blackburn, Dorothy Jane Warren, and Carolyn Fritts will serve as Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
