

PREVIEW OF COMING ATTRACTIONS

Tuesday, September 4, 1951, is the date when the Montreat College Freshmen arrive. Many people have been eagerly waiting and preparing for this day. When they come pouring in, I can just hear a wail go up from the old girls and faculty members, "Oh, I'll simply never get to know them all, and I want to so badly!" But before we know it, we are calling them all by name and are so busy introducing them to Montreat that we often forget that they have already spent several busy, useful years in this world. We seem to assume that life began for them on that eventful day when they arrived at Montreat. Just what have they been doing, what do they want to do, and where did they come from? Allow me to tell you, please.

MARGARET BARRETT, whose home is in Monticello, Florida, has been very active in the Young People's work in her Church, and has taught a Sunday School Class there.

The first on our list of "Tarheels" is FRANCIS DEACONBOARD whose father is a minister in Nebo, N. C. Frances has also been very active in Church work.

From Atlanta, Georgia, comes LOUISE BENNETT, who last year was President of the Student Body of Roosevelt High School in Atlanta.

OLIVIA ADE BISHOP comes to us from Greasville, Florida. She's eager for cold weather so she can wear the first winter coat she has ever owned or needed. Just wait 'til the first snow falls! No doubt she'll try to send some of it home to the folks in Florida!

Another "Georgia Peach" is IMOGENE BOOTH who comes from Winder, Ga. where she has been active in young people's work, sung in the Choir, and held office on her Presbytery's Youth Council.

DORIS BUSH is no stranger in Montreat because she has been here all summer. Doris comes from Blackey, Kentucky and graduated from Stuart Robinson.

The high school in Jessup, Georgia, will really miss IVEY DEE CHAFFIN who was a member of the debating team, the band, and was valedictorian of her class. Juan, Kentucky, sends us GEORGIA COIBS, who was also a member of the Montreat Summer Colony, and who is Juanita's sister.

JO ELLA DUNAWAY of Princeton, West Virginia made scores of friends while serving graciously and well in the Montreat cafeteria this summer.

Another West Virginia gal is SUTHA GREGORY of White Sulphur Springs who is interested in doing Religious Education work.

VERA HODGES comes all the way from El Dorado, Arkansas, but she will feel at home in Montreat because she is the sister of Vivian Hodges whom we all know and love.

JOAN HUNSBURGER of Miami, Florida has had considerable experience in religious work. She taught a Bible Class for children in her neighborhood and has done an excellent job in Daily Vacation Bible Schools there.

From the Old Dominion comes MARGARET LEECH of Troutville, Va. who was assistant organist in her home Church and who received a music medal at her graduation from high school.

LETA ROSE MILLER from way down in New Orleans won first prize in newspaper essay writing.

CAROLYN MASON served gallons of coffee in the Montreat cafeteria this summer. She's from Westminster, South Carolina.

She holds a music medal, she's an athlete, and she's MARY LEE MIMS from Darlington, South Carolina.

Another worthy South Carolinian is FRANCIS MOULON of Greeleyville, who was voted the most talented in her senior class and was a leader in the Young Peoples Department of her Church.

EVELYN MORRIS, Montgomery, West Virginia, plays the piano and directs a choir for children. She was also a counsellor in Kanawha Presbytery's Pioneer Camp.

KATHRYN MULL of Asheville, North Carolina is another of the Summertime Montreaters. She's a graduate of Lee Edwards High School.

Also from Asheville is MARY ALICE REED who was assistant pianist and choir assistant in her Church.

CAROLYN ROBINSON comes to us from Rose Hill, N. C. as a transfer from Eastern Carolina Teacher's College.

From Wilson, N. C. comes FRANCES THORNE who was secretary of the Sunday School and president of the P. Y. F.

JULIA TRAYNHAM of Laurens, S. C. sang in the choir and was president of the P. Y. F.

Another musician is HANCY WALLACE of Troy, N. C. who has studied piano for nine years. (cont'n on p. 4)
