ED'S NOTES

We want to welcome you new Staff members and tell you how glad we are to have you working with us. (Take a look at the masthead, everybody, and see for yourself what fine choices we made.) It was hard to choose from all the excellent material available and we wish we could have chosen all of you. Thanks so much for trying out. We may call on you for help anyway.

Don't forget the DIALETTE subscription contest! Anyone can use ten dollars! Get busy and try to be the one who gets to use the ten spot offered as prize money to the person who gets the most subscriptions between now and October 31. Be sure to contact your friends and families and tell them that they can have nine issues for the asking—and $1. You know they need a Dialectte, too!

Mr. Rawlins, the photographer, will be in Montreat next week (Monday and Tuesday) to make individual pictures for the annual. Of course, the staff has all faith in the world in your ability to cooperate; we merely want to remind you to be especially conscious of being on time for your picture. You can imagine how much it would mean to have the schedule get behind time! Incidentally, don't forget to bring your money ($2) with you when you come to have your picture made.

King, Bennet, Plecker New Cabinet Members

The Cabinet of Student Government has just received three new members as a result of recent elections.

June King, newly elected Junior Class president, took her place in Cabinet as representative of her class. She had to resign her duties on the AMA as head of tennis because of points, but still holds her position of the SCA as leader of the Comradship Group.

The other two new cabinet members are representatives of their dorm, Howerton, as assistant house presidents Louise Bennett, last year's president of the Freshman Class, will be president of first floor, and Gene Booth, replacing Hilda Plecker, who had to resign her duties because of her health, will represent third floor.

Mary Sabonsky Announced As President Of Freshman Class

The Freshman Class, after almost two months of proving individual ability, and speculation among themselves, have elected their class officers.

Wednesday night, October 15, they ran very close elections after which they happily announced the following as their leaders:

President — Mary Sabonsky
Vice-President — Jewell Bailey
Secretary — Barbara Tugman
Treasurer — Rachel Denman

Faye Britt, vice-president of the student body, has been acting president of the Freshman Class during the orientation program. Miss Margaret Smith is their sponsor.

Bankruptcy

By Sayers

One midnight in starlight still
I dreamed that I received this bill
(In account with Life).
Five thousand breathless dawns, all new;
Five thousand flowers fresh with dew;
Five thousand sunsets wrapped in gold;
One million snowflakes served ice-cold;
Five quiet friends; one baby's love;
One white, mad sea with clouds above;
One hundred music-haunted dreams
Of moon-drenched roads and hurrying streams,
Of prophesying winds, and trees,
Of silent stars, and browsing bees;
One June night in a fragrant wood;
One heart that loved and understood.
I wondered, when I woke at day,
How—how in God's name—I could pay.

NEW COLLEGE DEAN

From Page 1

Mrs. Frantz is an accomplished violinist and they often play organ and violin duets. Mr. and Mrs. Frantz make their home at Webbwood Apartments.

Mr. Green

Mr. Francis Green, from Wilmington, Delaware, has joined the faculty to teach voice, and form and analysis, and to conduct the college choir and traveling chorus. He attended Brown University and after graduating from the University of Delaware, did graduate work at the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia Music Academy, and Eastman School of Music.

During the summer months, Mr. Green has worked in theatrics in both Delaware and in the Finger Lakes Region. In his spare time, he finds relaxation in his hobby, photography, or in listening to classical music.

Mrs. Smith

Mrs. Virginia Smith, from LaGrange, Georgia, has joined the faculty to teach in the business education department. Mrs. Smith taught at Bethel College in McKenzie, Tennessee, and at Georgia Tech College for Women.

She received her A.B. degree from Georgia Tech College for Women, and her M.S. degree from the University of North Carolina. She attended Woman's College in Greensboro, where she did graduate work.

Mr. Abernathy

Mr. Jack Abernathy, of Gastonia, North Carolina, has joined the Montreat College staff as head of the publicity department and campus photographer.

He graduated from Davidson College in 1940, receiving a B.A. degree in English, and attended the University of North Carolina where he took journalism. He taught English in Belmont High School, Belmont, North Carolina, before his career as a newspaperman. He worked 4 years on the GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS, and also worked with the Asheboro News Bureau. He was editor of his own newspaper in Randolph County for a short time before the Korean War.

Mr. Abernathy served his country four years during World War II, as a company commander, and tank platoon leader of the Armored Force in Europe. He just recently returned from the Korean front where he served as an enemy operations intelligence officer.

Mrs. Lee

Mrs. Samuel Engle Lee this year succeeds Mrs. W. F. Mauldin as house mother for Howerton Hall. Mrs. Lee is a native of Georgia, but has lived in Black Mountain for the last twelve years. Her hus-
