Support Advertisers

Let's all support the folks who advertise in our school paper! If it's a choice between the cab that gives us an ad and the one that doesn't, well, there's at least one good reason for choosing the one who advertises in the Dialectte. That's just an example. The same thing might hold true if you were deciding to which grocery, drug, or department store you would go.

Be loyal to your school paper, girls, and give your patronage to the business that advertises in the Dialectte! They help us, so let's help them. Just as a reminder, we're listing our advertisers below.

Black Mountain Hardware, Blue Ridge Cleaners, Collins Dept. Store, Earley's Drive-In Cleaners, Friendly Cab Co., H&W 5&10, Key City Laundry, Ladies' Shop, Lormay's Dept. Store, McMurray Chevrolet Co., Pelom's, Pence Novelty Store, Quality Dry Cleaners, Reed's Cab, Summey's Ready-To-Wear, The Band Box, Uzzell's Drug Store.

ience was given simply but did not fail to impress the listener. She had a starring role in the movie, "Souls In Conflict", which was shown in Gaither Chapel on November 24.

During her sophomore year, Mary was secretary of the Life Service Group and a cheerleader for the Gold team. She is now Advertising Manager for the Sun Dial and a prayer group leader. She is a member of the college chorus and has sung in the church choir.

Julia, from Laurens, South Carolina, is the daughter of Mrs. Hurman Traynham. Majoring in Bible and Christian Education, she plans to work as a D.C.E. after graduation.

Julia is a loyal A.M.A. Board member. During her sophomore year, she was Gold Team Representative; last year she was president of the M Club; now she is head of individual sports. She was a cheerleader for the Hiwassee tribe and is now vice-president of the senior class and a prayer group leader.

During Julia's four years of college life, she has participated in the church choir, Thaliens, Life Service Group, Music Club, and the soccer varsity team.

On Thursday, November 25, a Montreat crowd of over one hundred visitors, teachers and students witnessed the baffling 6-0 Varsity victory over the M Club members.

With chilly spirits, because of the weather, both teams plunged into action at 2 p.m. During the first quarter of this Thanksgiving homecoming soccer game, Sabra Slay kicked the ball through the goal, making the first score of the game.

Again, in the second quarter, Slay upset plans for the M Clubbers by scoring another. The whistle blew, marking the end of the first half with a 4-0 lead for the Varsity team.

During the time between halves, a group of eight cheerleaders led by head cheerleader, Shirley Nelson, performed for the first time since their election. After a series of pep yells, the cheerleaders formed an "M" in the center of Montreat's dust bowl, and everyone joined in singing the Alma Mater.

The cheerleaders for the '54-'55 season are: Shirley Nelson, Pat Bach, Patsy Childers, Becky Jo Cooper, Garon Driggers, Jenelle Gurganus, Dona Rae Lackie, Sabra Slay, and Betty Warren.

The third quarter of this exciting soccer game ended scoreless. The last score of the game was gained by the Varsity team when Ann Bullard once again outsmarted the M Club's goal guard. Varsity, with a score of 6-0, had triumphed over the M Club for the first time in five years.

Montreat College's Varsity soccer team was made up of the following girls: Ann Bullard, Barbara Daniels, Carolyn Dillingham, Mary Frances Edwards, Jenelle Gurganus, Katherine Harper, Shirley Nelson, Betty Newton, Norma O'Brien, Betsy Reed, Sabra Slay, Carolyn Smith, and Doris Webb.

CCUN DISCUSSES WOMEN'S IMP.

Just what is the woman's place in the world today? Perhaps many of us thought it was merely to clean house and keep children in the "straight and narrow." However, the CCUN, in its recent chapel program, showed us that the woman of today is qualified to fill almost any office and to hold almost any position.

The place of women in the world is not the only subject in which the CCUN is interested. Each month, at their meetings, they discuss the latest world events and how they will affect our generation.

CCUN sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, helps keep things "on the ball" all year 'round.
