

Respect the rights of your roommate and your neighbors. Honesty with oneself and with others always pays. Make a special effort to be friendly. Go out of your way to be helpful and understanding. These things will not insure success in your college career, but they will add to your enjoyment of dormitory living and college life.

Feel free to ask advice of your faculty or student counselor. That's what they're for. And your "Big Sister" is always on the job, too.

We hope most of all that you will find a place in the spiritual atmosphere of our campus. Our Student Christian Association is very active and we want you to find the place where you can best serve.

It might be well to add, as a summary, "The Christian's Daily Dozen." Try practicing it. It will work wonders in daily living.

1. A little Patience--once a day.
2. A bit of Self-control--somewhere.
3. A minute of Unselfishness.
4. A flash of Generosity.
5. One kind word--possibly two.
6. A word of Appreciation to somebody.
7. An eager Excuse--for someone else.
8. One good Deed--not left undone.
9. A noble Thought--perhaps a text.
10. A little Prayer--for a friend in need.
11. A sudden Smile--where it can do some good.
12. A snatch of Song--or hum a tune.

Remember, your value is determined by what you make of yourself. Your talents and gifts are useless unless they are used and shared with others. There's always room for improvement, so have an open mind to new ideas. YOU make the difference.

Montreat College welcomes you and extends to you an invitation to join in all its activities. We're counting on you and we have faith in you. Let's make this the very best year that Montreat College has ever known.
