

Box 446, Montreat, N. C.
Return Postage Guaranteed

Montreat College Library

Montreat Ctg.
Library
City of
Post Office
Montreat, N.C.

Dialette

VOL. 3, NO. 10

MONTREAT-ANDERSON COLLEGE, MONTREAT, NORTH CAROLINA

JANUARY, 1961

GRETHEN MAY QUEEN

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday, January 14

C.C.U.N. International Supper,
Gaither Hall

Movie: "Saddle the Wind" with
Robert Taylor—8 P.M.

Tuesday, January 17

Boys' Basketball Game (Montreat vs.
Blk. Mountain Boys)
7:45 P.M., McAlister Hall

Wednesday, January 18

Civic Music Concert—The Philadelphia Orchestra, 8 P.M., Asheville

Saturday, January 21

Movie: "Brigadoon" with Gene Kelly,
7:30 P.M., Howerton
January 25-31—End of Semester
Vacation

Wednesday, February 1—Second Semester Classes begin

Jan. 26-Feb. 7—Chorus Tour

Saturday, February 4

Movie: "Somebody Up There Likes
Me", with Paul Newman, 7:30,
Howerton

Saturday, February 11

Movie: "The Gazebo" with Glenn Ford,
Debbie Reynolds, 7:30, Howerton

In the coldness of a January morning, Montreat students tried to visualize the beautiful warmth of a May day, and who among our lovely girls would best represent such a day.

Dale Grethen, a lass who radiates the sunshine of her hometown, Miami, Florida, was elected to bear the coveted title of May Queen. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Grethen said, "I still can't believe it—I'm just floating on clouds". The president of the sophomore class is also a member of the Montreat Chorus.

"This is the most wonderful thing that has ever happened to me—I'm going to cry", were the sincere words of the Maid of Honor, Anne Gilliland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gilliland of Birmingham, Alabama. Majoring in music, Ann is accompanist with the chorus and a member of the Music Club.

The two freshmen representatives are blond and fair. Although Judi Folis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Folis of Lawranceburg, Indiana, was Homecoming Queen of her high school and president of the Boosters Club, she was "shocked" at the honor bestowed upon her.

Another beauty queen from high school is Sara Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bird of Thomasville, North Carolina. Sara was Queen of the Fall Festival and a drum majorette for her high school. At Montreat she is in the chorus and a representative to the Dorm Council.

The daughter of Mrs. Mary Rose of Miami, Beth expressed her gratefulness for the honor of being a sophomore attendant. The dark beauty of Beth was seen last year as she was Maid of Honor in the May Court festivities. Beth is active on the S.C.A. Council, the W.R.A. Board, and her soprano voice is heard in the chorus.

On the W.R.A. Board, singer in the chorus, and recipient of North Carolina State Homemakers award in high school, Linda Parnell was elected to help represent the sophomores in the pageantry. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parnell, Linda hails from Red Springs, North Carolina.

These six beauties melt the coldness of January and bring always into their presence the charm and warmth of a May Day.

Tragedy Mars Holiday

On the night of December 19, 1960, a tragic accident occurred which resulted in the death of a Montreat freshman, Howard Anderson and a Black Mountain youth, Harley Meridith.

The accident occurred outside the Montreat gate and involved five Montreat coeds who were in the college station wagon. Most seriously injured was Betty Joann "Boats" Manning of Jessup, Georgia. "Boats" is suffering from broken bones in her face and ankles. Her roommate, Brenda Brevard from Hendersonville, North Carolina, received lacerations of the head and arm (she severed a tendon in her left arm). Darlene Davis is wearing a neck brace to speed her recovery from a chipped vertebrae in her neck. Sandy Scott and Gerry Jones suffered from shock, cuts and bruises.

"Boats" plans to be in Room 111 at Memorial Mission Hospital for quite awhile and would enjoy any cards or letters any readers might send her.

'60-'61 Superlatives

... And Jesus increased in Wisdom, and Stature, and in favor with God and man ..."

These words taken from our Bible give us the basis for our election of superlatives each year. These four: wisdom, stature, favor with God, and favor with man, are the four ways a Christian should grow. We are very happy to have Brenda Overman, as recipient of Joy in Learning; Mary Carswell, for Sportsmanship; Ann Harbour, as True Spiritual Vision, and Beth Rose for Most Gracious.

These girls are worthy to be named this, and we are proud to have them to represent us.

The Dialecte Staff on behalf of the students, faculty, and administration wish to extend its most sincere sympathy to the family of Howard Anderson. Howard was a freshman, killed in an automobile accident on December 19, 1960.