A VISIT WITH THE CORBETTS

It was our pleasure to interview two lovely people of the Montreat community, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett, for this issue of the paper. Mr. Corbett was born in Edge Combe County, North Carolina, and Mrs. Corbett was born in Pamlico County, North Carolina. It is very interesting to note how Mr. and Mrs. Corbett met. They were each attending a wedding in Troy, North Carolina. Mr. Corbett was friend of the groom and Mrs. Corbett was a friend of the bride. Somehow they ran into each other that afternoon and their friendship ended as a happy marriage.

Mrs. Corbett graduated from woman's College of North Carolina and received her Master's degree from the University of North Carolina. Mr. Corbett graduated from Staunton Military Academy in Staunton, Virginia. He was in World War I with the 321st Infantry, known as the 81st Wildcat Division. He worked with the postal service at Fort Bragg until he retired in November, 1956.
