IN PARADE OF STATES

TWO CAROLINAS TAKE TOP HONORS

In the parade of states at Montreat-Anderson, the two Carolinas take top honors. In first place is North Carolina with 137 students and South Carolina leading a close second with 95.

Two other states which are well represented are Virginia and Florida with 67 and 42 respectively.

The remaining top ten are Georgia, 16; New Jersey, 11; Tennessee, 10; Maryland, 7; Pennsylvania, Connecticut, and Ohio, 4; and Texas, 2.

Washington, D. C., Alabama, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Kentucky, California, and Missouri are represented by 1 person each.

Foreign students

There are 4 foreign students at Montreat-Anderson this year. Two are from the Canal Zone, 1 from Venezuela, and 1 from Taiwan.

Montreat-Anderson welcomes each of you new students and hopes that you will feel a part of the student body before you leave.

that Dr. Nash dealt very well with one of the very important subjects that people need to think about today. Dr. Stafford reemphasized the fact that Dr. Nash pointed out the importance of choosing a system of values that not only influence behavior but also that will provide guidelines for developing future attitudes.

MOONLIGHT HIKE PLANNED

The W. R. A. has tentatively planned a moonlight hike for the month of October, to which girls may invite a date. A box supper will be eaten around a campfire, followed by singing and games.

DR. NASH SPEAKS

Dr. Ethel Nash, a very charming and interesting lady, was the first guest lecturer in Montreat-Anderson's lecture-artist series of the 1965-1966 session. Her lecture, entitled "Sex and Marriage," was well received by some five hundred students, faculty members, and friends of the college Thursday evening September 30, in Anderson Auditorium.

Dr. Nash's lecture provoked many comments from her listeners. Ann Boyd felt that Dr. Nash was very broad minded and that she was right when she said that the older generation had no right to impose their ideas upon us but that they had a responsibility to us to make sure that we realized the facts on all sides.

NEW COURSE AT M. A. C.

Montreat-Anderson College is very fortunate to have Professor John Bridges, a graduate of the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, to teach the first class in Art History. He is also Director of the Exhibition and Audio Visuals Room at Pack Memorial Library in Ashville.

In the art class there are approximately twenty-four students, who meet at 7:30 P.M. every Monday for a two hour period, and third period every Saturday morning. During the first semester, the students will be studying Italian High Renaissance and Michelangelo, and in the second semester, Italian Mannerism-the art style of the late 16th Century-Northern Renaissance, and later Contemporary Art.

When interviewed, Professor Bridges stated that, "the course Art History is a survey of major monuments of history in western art, which contains Egyptian, Middle Eastern, and Mesopotamian,
