

WHAT WOULD YOU THINK?

We often wonder what the faculty thinks of us college students, especially when they try to guide us in a chapel program and have 400 hymn books slammed into their holders after (and sometimes during) each and every hymn.

...Or what do they think when the benediction is finished and yells of relief rise as the entire student body surges for the exit doors.

...Or what do they think when they are on their way to church and see trees draped with quite unnatural drapings.

...Or what do they think when they see filth added to every announcement posted on campus.

...Or what do they think when they hear that over one hundred dollars worth of damage has been done to one of the dormitories by our own "little goblins".

...Or what do they think when they discover that fifty per cent of their class has not prepared its assignment.

What would you think?

TWO ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM "THE DIALETTE"

The Dialectte is intended primarily as a voice of Montreat-Anderson College. We welcome letters to the editor from any student or faculty member under the following provisions.

Letters must be typed and signed. We will withhold the writer's name if requested. We reserve the right not to print any letter and no letter will be printed if received unsigned.

Mail letters to The Dialectte, P.O. Box 862, Montreat, N.C.

We, the members of the Dialectte, are proud to announce that we now have an office on the second floor in the Faculty House. Furniture is not available as of now, but we hope, in due time, that this room will be properly furnished. This office will give us a big push forward and give us a place where we can really work and make our paper one of the best.

In order to grow as Christians we should study the Bible. In addition to your daily Bible study you may find it helpful to meditate on the following Bible verses.

November	Verse
13	John 5:24
14	Hebrews 9:27
15	1 John 1:8-9
16	Romans 8:28
17	Psalms 32:8
18	James 1:12
19	Ephesians 2:9-9
20	Isaiah 53:5
21	Acts 4:12
22	John 14:1-3
23	John 14:6
24	John 14:13-14
25	1 Corinthians 10:13

The Dialectte is the official publication of the students of Montreat-Anderson College and is published bi-monthly at Montreat, North Carolina.
