Open House

By: Kathy McPherson

Last Monday, December 8th, was set aside for M.A. Hall's open house. All the girls had spent a lot of time on their door decorations. There were many comments made about how nice every floor looked.

Mrs. Pat Daniels of Black Mountain, N. C. came to look over all of the doors and select the best ones. Recognition goes to the following:

Second Floor - First Prize
Tricia Johnson
Ann Wallace
Second Prize
Jan Boyle
Janet James

Third Floor - First Prize
Elizabeth Bass
Jackie Sapp
Second Prize
Susan White
Ellen Foster

Fourth Floor - First Prize, tie.
Mary Rea
Lee Guant,
Karen McCary
Sue Whitmer
Second Prize, tie.
Ann Johnson
Gail Gordon,
Cheryl Scott
Sue Owen

Fifth Floor - First Prize
Maray Greenmore
Donna Huntington
Second Prize
Sue Dewit

The honorable mentions were all on fifth floor. They were:

Cheryl England Becky Fisher
Sandy Lesley Elizabeth Warren

Pat Stafford
Carmen Matthews

Prizes will be awarded to some of these winners at a later time.

Thanks go to all the students of Montreat-Anderson for making M.A. Hall's Open House such a success.

The Annual Staff is conducting a "photo contest."

Three prizes will be given to the best and most interesting shots. First Prize will be $10.00, second prize $5.00, and third prize will be $3.00. The pictures will also be used in the Annual this year.

Any student interested may submit pictures of some aspect of campus life to Dean Tyler's office no later than January 17th.

Outlook

SPOTLIGHT FOREIGN STUDENTS

By: Allswell Muzan

Georgia Koukis is a nineteen year old Greek girl from Athens. An epitome of beauty, she came into the United States in 1968 and is a freshman. She plans to become a mathematics major, possibly to earn a doctorate with a vocational objective in teaching. Georgia studied at Byrron High School in Athens. Her father and younger brother are residents of Asheville, N. C. Georgia's hobbies are soccer, swimming, and she has an inborn love for the sea. She has a very captivating smile and is a bright spot at MAC.

Joseph Gabidon comes from Bathurst in Gambia, West Africa. He received his high school education in Gambia High School in Bathurst. He is a Roman Catholic, but he accepts all Christian religions, not minding denominational differences. A freshman, with a keen aptitude for mathematics, Joseph plans to study medicine and practice in his homeland. Joseph played on the MAC soccer team and enjoys dating and watching T. V. Joe is very friendly and has a sleek and calm way of approaching people. Black Joe has one of the broadest smiles behind the ice-cream counter of the Student Union.

Kasra Farzanegan is eighteen years old and until recently was a resident of Munich, West Germany. Paternally a Persian and maternally a German, Kasra prefers to claim both nationalities. His earlier studies were in Munich American High School and M-N-C School in Gisela. KK, as most people know him, plans on a career in Dentistry. He is a devout Moslem. He has played on the Montreat Soccer team and his hobbies are tennis and music. KK has a rational affinity for beautiful girls.

Ghanshyam Udani comes from Kampala, Uganda in East Africa. A second semester freshman, Shyam plans on a physics or a medicine major. He is very much in love with Africa but when asked about his feeling about his stay in America, he says "I have had no cause for regret." Gentle, calm, and reposed, Shyam is honorary Secretary of the Phi Theta Kappa Society. He enjoys ping pong, badminton, and creative writing. Shyam works part time in the admissions office. Shortly, Shyam hopes to again see his family of two brothers, one sister, mother and father, who is employed in the insurance business.

This article will be continued in our next issue for the sake of space and convenience.
