STUDENT NEWSPAPER OF MONTREAT-ANDERSON COLLEGE

VOL. I, NO. 1

"First the blade, then the ear, then the full corn shall appear."

DEC. 15, 1972

BALL CLUB FALLS, 62-51

Last night the Montreat Cavaliers travelled through clouds and rain to meet defeat at the hands of the Lees-McRae Bobcats. Soon after the game's start, a series of turnovers, bad breaks, cut the Cavaliers' enthusiasm. Lees-McRae controlled the balance of the fall, blocking from inside and keeping the Montreat Cavaliers away from the basket. The Bobcats pushed hard in a charged offense led by their high scorer, Chaduaria. At the end of the first half, Montreat was behind, 22 - 36. During the second half, the Cavaliers worked hard and outscored Lees-McRae, but they were not able to make up the deficit. The scoring was

Dance Tomorrow

The clack of typewriters and hum of exam-time study will be interrupted tomorrow night by music from another sphere, as the College presents the annual Christmas dance.

The dance will be held at Assembly Inn from 8 - 12 P.M. Bandit, a boogie-rock group which will perform, has played melodies from such artists as Beatles and Chuck Berry all over the South.

Robert Jones, director of Student Activities, has several guidelines to be followed by students at the dance: "1) no roaming around the halls of Assembly Inn. Students will be asked to leave if they are caught in the halls upstairs. 2) do not throw cigarettes on the floors---a student committee has to clean up after the dance. Remember we are guests of the Inn. 3) Guests will not be charged. 4) Dress is informal; come as you are. 5) The dance hours are from 8 - 12. The people at Assembly Inn have been extremely nice to us; let's do our best to hold up our image." That is, our personal conduct as well as our music.

Bandit has recently played at Asheville and at Lees-McRae Junior College.

NEWSPAPER - A NEW ISSUE

This first issue of The is an introductory issue which has been published to make the students aware of the reality of the student newspaper; beginning next semester will be larger issues on the same format as this issue. Copies of each newspaper edition will be available, free of charge, to all resident- or day-students of Montreat-Anderson College; these copies will be available in Gaither and in the cafeteria at lunch-time on the day of publication. Each issue will include articles about school functions and special events, human interest features concerning students and faculty members, which directly affect M-A C students, and complete coverage of all sports events.

* A SHOT AT THE TITLE

Here is your chance to become involved. The newspaper staff is sponsoring a school wide contest to find the cleverest name for this student newspaper. There are no restrictive guidelines to selecting the winning name. We are looking for a clever, witty name, possibly one which has something to do with Montreat.

All resident and day-students of Montreat - Anderson College are eligible to enter. The contest deadline is January 12, 1973, and the winners will be announced in the February issue, which will include the new name. A five-dollar prize will be awarded to the winning student.

All entries should be given to the faculty secretary in Gaither Hall to be placed in the newspaper box.

If there is a special announcement or news item that you would like to see printed

PPRESIDENT VAUGHN--

CHRISTMAS GREETING

Congratulations to Student Government and to all of you that have been active in dormitory meetings, clubs, and student activities at large for a good fall semester at M-A C.

I am proud that a student newspaper is in the making. I encourage it as a formal and informal avenue of communicating facts and honest views about student life and concerns that may involve many of you of the college community.

As a newcomer I have tried to make myself available to you in many ways and at different times. As an administrator I hope this will continue. I want to know you and have you know me. "Rap Sessions" can be good if they are honest and sincere. We can uncover many mutual concerns. My accessibility should never be taken as trying to undermine student government or to subvert student affairs. It is my suggestion that you discuss with your student leaders, the student personnel staff, the faculty and all other officers

COLLINS LEAVES FOR A NEW POST

Dr. Ray Collins has been offered a position on the staff of J. Sargent Reynolds Community College in Richmond, Virginia; J. Sargent Reynolds Community College is a new school which will open in the fall of 1973. He has accepted this offer and will leave Montreat after this semester. Dr. Collin's official position will be that of Division Chairman of Health Technologies.

When asked why he is leaving Montreat he replies, "The offer of this challenging position was too much to turn down. For some time I've wanted a position similar to this."
