

MAC Embarrasses Caldwell 93-68

by Allen Meadows

December 13 at home against Caldwell Community College marked the men's basketball team's finest performance to date. The Cavaliers won 93 - 68 and considered the game a Christmas present.

Things looked evenly matched for the first five minutes of play with Caldwell doing some fine outside shooting. Alva Duke, playing for the injured Willie McCray, committed his 3rd foul with 10:45 remaining and was replaced by Ivan Diggs. MAC couldn't seem to get a rebound and then everything broke loose. Gary Parris took a pass from James Freshwater on a steal for 2 points. Two more fastbreaks instigated by Freshwater followed and the score ran to 26 - 16, Caldwell calling time-out.

Tim Edwards' abundance of hustle backfired shortly thereafter as he committed his third violation and was replaced by Reggie Bass. The score went to 30 - 18, before MAC turned the ball over three consecutive times allowing Caldwell to come within four at 30 - 26. But Coach Wilhelmi was not dismayed for he sent into the game 3 second-stringers Bob Lake, Kirk Stasche, and Kenny Roseboro to replace Robert Brinkley, James Freshwater, and Gary Parris. They held on to lead and went into the locker room on top 40 - 36 at the half.

The first team returned to the hardwoods the second half and hustled out to a 51 - 40 advantage with 16:03 remaining forcing Caldwell to call out. It was now time for MAC to coast.

Duke fouled out of the game and was replaced by Ivan Diggs with 5:33 remaining, the score 73 - 57. MAC extended their lead their lead to 21 points on a three point play by Freshwater killing any hopes Caldwell had to a possible comeback. With 3:00 remaining the second string made up of Reggie Bass, Kenny Roseboro, Bob Lake, and Kirk Stasche joined Diggs. The first team received a standing ovation.

Bob Lake quickly made it 82 - 57 followed by a shot from Roseboro to up the lead 84 - 59. With the score 87 - 59 Ivan Diggs was replaced by Matt Conners. Conners quickly got into the points-scored column, and then Stasche netted 2 more. Conners scored again from 15 feet out to end the game 93 - 68.

SCORING:

- Freshwater - 24
- Stasche - 2
- Duke - 8
- Roseboro - 9
- Parris - 18
- Brinkley - 11
- Lake - 4
- Edwards - 10
- Bass - 2

Coach's Comment

After seeing his team devastate Caldwell College Tuesday night Coach Norm Wilhelmi said, "I think I'll adopt every one of them. For Freshwater on down there's not a selfish bone in their heads. That's what has made this team.' The Cavaliers record now stands at 3 - 1 and play will resume when January 12 against Mitchell College.
