Cavaliers Defeated At Home By Mitchell

by Allen Meadows

The Cavaliers of Montreat-Anderson College matched the Mavericks of Mitchell College basket for basket in the second half of play but were never able to answer for the 10-point deficit brought on by Mitchell during the first half. The 81-71 loss on February 6th marked the first time this season that the Cavaliers have dropped a game at home. Their record now stands at 9-4 with their next outing slated for February 8 at Asheville-Buncombe Tech.

The Mavericks of Mitchell College led from beginning to end of the contest shooting a remarkable 70 percent from the field. Coach Norm Wilhelmi commented, "we only lost the game. We played just as hard as we have all season. We couldn't play our game (zone) and so we had to force the action. Mitchell had tremendous shooting accuracy."

Mitchell is currently ranked No. 5 in regional defense, and also possesses a high scorer by the name of Walker. Walker, who had averaged 35 points coming into the contest, was held to only 16 by the MAC defense. However, another Mitchell player, Lemont Lindsey, answered with 32 points.

Robert "Bull" Brinkley had a big night for the Cavs hitting 22 points and managed to keep MAC in the contest with muscle rebounding underneath. Willie McCray responded with 16 points and several 'clutch' plays. Gary Parris had 10.

The big surprise of the evening was James Freshwater's production of only 9 points. Freshwater was injured in the North Greenville game several weeks ago on the heel of his foot and is yet to be at 100 percent performance. (Please see article on this page.)

Kenny Roseboro and Alva

Duke came off the bench in the second half to try and spark a MAC attack, but were only able to dent an otherwise high gloss Mitchell team. Duke connected for six points. Ivan Diggs rounded out the scoring for the Cavaliers with 8 baskets.

Freshwater Injured

James Freshwater, guard for the Montreat-Anderson College basketball team and leading scorer in Western Carolina, suffered an injury in the North Greenville contest two weeks ago and has yet to recover. Freshwater went crashing into the wall on a fastbreak that night injuring his left heel. Although he played in Monday night's action against Mitchell, his performance was far from usual as he only connected for a total of 9 points.

Fans, players, and the coach considers Freshwater to be the core of the MAC attack. Freshwater says, "I'm just following the doctor's orders by staying off of it and soaking it as much as possible." There's not much time to recuperate for Freshwater considering the team could flounder without his presence.

The injury would never have occurred if the gymnasium wall behind the basketball goal had been padded sufficiently.

Coach Norm Wilhelmi stated solemnly, "our season has seen its highwater mark." It looks to be a battle from here on out for the Montreat-Anderson Cavaliers.

Intramural Standings

Intramural basketball is about to go into its fourth big week at Montreat-Anderson College with the competition on a higher scale than any prior year. Teague Chosen For Florida Trip

David Teague, a freshman here at Montreat-Anderson College, has been chosen by Coach Linn Stranak to accompany the baseball team to Florida this year during Spring Break acting as Public Information Officer. Teague is to report back to the College and surrounding area newspapers the results of the baseball team's contests.

The baseball team will play between March third and fifth in Georgia, and spend the remaining days playing in Florida. Teague is being sponsored by the Black Mountain News which will publish a feature page on the baseball team February 23. David must well adds for this page in order to acquire the one hundred dollars he needs for transportation, food, and lodging.

Teague commented, "I am really looking forward to it. I've never been to Florida! It will be fun from that standpoint, but it will also be a big boost for my career, and it will test my news-gathering abilities."
