

THE ALETHEIA

MONTREAT - ANDERSON
COLLEGE

October 11, 1985

Vol. 9, Number 2

Homecoming 85

Lyn Plant

That time of year is here once again, and everyone's talking about it. If you haven't figured it out already, Homecoming weekend starts on Friday, October 11. The festivities kick off with a women's volleyball game (alumni vs. students) at 4:00. At 8:00, a square dance will be held in the barn. Saturday's activities will include: Basketball Exhibition and reception in the gym at 11:30, soccer game vs. Young-Harris at 3:00 in the soccer field, and the Homecoming Dance at 9:00 on the 3rd floor of the Belk Campus Center. Mrs. Anderson has coordinated all of the student activities during this exciting weekend.

The Homecoming court for 1985 consists of four sophomores and four freshmen. Running for Homecoming Queen will be: Christie Reavis, Camilla Silen, Pam Taylor, and Wendy Triplett. Running for Maid of Honor is: Cindy Henderson, Paula Johnson, Patty Pullen, and Andrea Shawver. We wish good luck to all of the girls.

Michael W. Smith at Montreat?

SCA PRESS RELEASE

Tension has lifted, minds have eased and final decisions have been made. It's time to quell the rumors. Yes, fellow students, it's true. On October 30th at 8:00p.m. in Anderson Auditorium approximately 3,000 Christian music lovers will enjoy the awesome sights and sounds of Grammy Award winning songwriter and singer Michael W. Smith.

Due to his collaboration with popular Christian Artist Amy Grant, Smith's own talents as a composer and performer were brought to the attention of the public. Smith served Grant's band as composer, keyboardist, band leader and background vocalist. His talents were instrumental in the success of Grant's concerts during his years with the band. Since that time Smith has come to enjoy his own success as a solo artist. His solo works include; "Michael W. Smith Project," "2," and his most recent endeavor to be released in the near future.

The concert, sponsored by the Student Christian Association, has been an enormous undertaking that the SCA feels is well worth the effort. The Associations Large Group Coordinator, Greg Howard states, "We would like to see more concerts of this caliber take place at Montreat-Anderson and the possibility of future concerts will depend in part on the success of this concert." Not only does the

Out of all the activities that are going on this week, we shouldn't forget to give God praise in everything we do. Sometimes we can get so carried away with what's happening around us, we don't pay attention to what's really important in our lives. There will be a lot of laughter this weekend, maybe a few tears, good fellowship with old friends who have moved on to other things, and probably a lot of new friends. We need to let God be the center of this Homecoming celebration, and if we do that, we are sure to have a fantastic time.

charge for this is $1.00 per person. The Homecoming Dance should be a great time of fellowship and "catching up" with old friends. It will also be a great time for students to meet some of the alumni of former years.

The weekend will be winding down with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. (Alumni Sunday School taught by Dr. Alan Sparks) and the worship service in Gaither Chapel. Dr. Calvin Thielman will be delivering the morning message. The afternoon will be a "winding down" time, where all of the alumni will say goodbye and look forward to another great Homecoming in 1986!

Front Row: Cindy Henderson, Paula Johnson, Patty Pullen, Pam Taylor and Wendy Triplett, Back Row: Andrea Shawver, Christie Reavis, Camilla Silen

Michael W. Smith in concert, Oct. 30th

SCA expect great Christian entertainment; they anticipate a spiritually powerful message in Smith's ministry. In relation to this Howard says, "It's gonna be a lot of fun and that's great! I mean, since when did having a good time in the Lord become a sin? And, I'm sure that Michael's message will come through Loud and Clear!"

Those attending the concert can expect to hear the best in contemporary Christian music, performed by a top notch band and highlighted by an outstanding light show. Performing along with Smith will be Kathy Troccoli and Billy Sprague. Tickets go on sale October 11 for $9.00 and can be purchased IN ADVANCE ONLY! Tickets will be available at the college book store and other Asheville locations. Doors open at 7:15p.m. and there will be no admittance without the advance ticket.

Concert information and off campus ticket sales will be handled by the SCA at:

Montreat-Anderson College
Student Christian Assoc.
Montreat, NC 28757
(704) 669-8011 ext. 274