

Baseball Swings into Action

By Marcy Buckner

The stillness rings with the crack of a bat, and fall baseball begins.

Darin Chaplain is the head coach for the team, assisted by Billy Conley and Paul O'Neal. Both of which, Chaplain compliments, are "great additions."

Marginally a young team, there are several new players. This year's roster is:

Sophomores: JJ Altizer, Chad Greene, Shane Hatcher, Greg Hathcock, Jarrett Hathcock, Chris Hoyle, Jamie Jessee, Scotty Lanning, Brian Pernell, Bud Rob-

Cav's Show Potential Despite Previous Loss

By Sean Anderson

As the players try their best to make a goal, the crowd cheers for their team. Despite crowd enthusiasm, Montreat lost to the Redmen, 5-0. Although the team failed to get the victory, they played well and showed determination.

Rio Grande is a tough team. The Redmen scored one in the first quarter, and again in the second quarter just before half-time.

Montreat-Anderson played competitively and placed some nice shots. However, the goalie was extremely talented and blocked each one. A large percentage of the Cavaliers' shots sailed over the goal. That white ball did not want to land in the intended area! It was a rough game.

There were a couple of close injuries, but nothing serious. The referee issued one yellow card for the Redmen.

The Cavs played well both offensively and defensively, but, once again, they were up against a tough team. As a matter of fact, Rio Grande scored three consecutive goals in one half.

erts. Juniors: Chris Fulbright and Shawn Willis.

Seniors: Mark Smith.

Chaplain states, "We didn't play real well against North Greenville... but we will." The Coaches have recruited a good class, and are very pleased with the young men chosen.

Mountain People Play Beach Volleyball

By Cara Weiss

Sand jams in between toes as players slam the ball back and forth. Students discover that beach volleyball can be played in the mountains.

This innovative activity

M-AC's record is currently 1-2. Peyton Elliot had these words to say, "The score hardly affects the way the game is played."

The Cavaliers next home game will be against Tennessee-Wesleyan. It is ambiguous as to who will claim the victory. Montreat-Anderson has potential and team members are enthusiastic about the game. Brian McDonald exclaimed, "We will do good."

Coach Schutt is hoping for a win. Although "it doesn't matter whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game," the team cannot afford another loss if they wish to make it to the Championship.

The Cavaliers are under great leadership. A few players to watch are Peyton Elliot, Leland Globke, David Jarema, Quent Johnson, and Mike Wallen.

takes place at the Carver Community Center near Lake Tomahawk, and is directed by Paula Johnson.

Eight teams, made up of brother and sister halls, compose the beach volleyball league. In addition to the dormitory hall teams, there is a team made up of faculty and staff.

There will be practice games throughout September. The tournament will commence during the first week of October. First, second, and third place will be awarded to the winning brother-sister teams.

Students are looking positively toward this activity. Amy Dill says, "Get involved." Christina Strickland adds, "It's a good chance for students to get together. We have a great time when we're out there."
