

Montreat's Own Clancy

Continued from page 1

of CGI. Technology finally caught up with my book." Cruise/Wagner Productions executive Missy Bania could only state, "The project is still in the very preliminary stages. I can't answer more than that because it's all stuff we don't really even know yet."

"Of course I'm not involved in the screen writing. That's pretty well standard," Forstchen relays. He believes that he will be involved on the set as a technical advisor since Civil War history is his area of doctoral study. "All I do is offer suggestions as a consultant." And of course his name will appear in the credits as the author.

Film professor Brian Fuller found in his Hollywood experience, "It is very rare for a writer to receive any sort of commission. They're usually paid a flat rate." Whatever the pay off and despite that negotiations for a movie have already begun on his book We Look Like Men of War, Forstchen asserts, "I am staying right here. I've looked for Montreat all of my life and I would be foolish to leave now."

Due to a mishap in the mail the Whetstone was unable to print this happy couples engagement in the Valentines Issue. Please accept our apologies, and may you enjoy a long, happy life together.

Johanna Gledhill and Nathan Wright are to be getting married May 19, 2002 in the Gaither Chapel.

Senior Voice Recital

Senior Leah Anderson performs her senior voice recital this weekend. The Mezzo-Soprano begins her hour-long memorized recital Saturday night at 7:00 pm. in the Chapel of the Prodigal.

This is her last year at Montreat College where she has studied voice performance for the last four years. She has been active in the choir all four years and was one of the key coordinators of the Madrigal Dinner.

Ugly Dress

Continued from page 6

The Ugly Dress Party 2002 was an extravagant success! It was an evening filled with style and class. Such class that only one "in touch with their feminine side" could comprehend.

Jubilee!!

By Sarah Wolfe

On Friday, February 22, 23 Montreat students, staff, and faculty, will be leaving for Pittsburgh, PA to attend the Jubilee Conference.

Students and faculty are asked to pray for them, that they will be encouraged and challenged by what they hear, and be kept safe while gone from us. God hears the prayers of his people!

Music Department Calendar of Events

Spring Semester 2002

- February 23, 7:00 PM, COP: Leah Anderson, Senior Voice Recital
- March 4, 7:00 PM, COP: Joint Faculty Recital
- March 16, 7:30 PM, COP: Renee Pittman, Senior Piano Recital
- April 7, 7:00 PM, COP: Concert Choir, Tatze Service
- April 14, 7:30 PM, COP: Krystie Evans, Student Voice Recital
- Late April TBA: Opera Performance Workshop
- April 29, 7:00 PM, COP: Student Department Recital
- May 5, 7:00 PM, COP: Concert Choir, Spring Concert

Duck's Hot Dogs

Great hot dogs
and Great shakes!!

10% off all purchases
with the Alumni Discount Card

709 Highway 70 - Black Mountain, NC - 669-2364

TREAT YOUR FRIENDS & FAMILY

to a walk down memory lane!

• Karaoke
& Jukebox

• Malts &
Milkshakes

• Old Fashioned
Floats

Cherry Tree

Corner

1950's Style Ice Cream & Soda Shoppe

Mon-Sat 11am-10pm, Sun 1-9pm
100 Cherry Street, Black Mountain
828.669.0555

• 18 Flavors of Hershey's
Ice Cream

• Mouth-Watering
Sundaes and
Cherry Cokes

BURGER KING®

Welcomes

Montreat

College Students

Montreat College Students

FREE BK 1/4 lb. Burger

when you buy a BK 1/4 lb. Burger of equal or greater value

Offer valid after 4 pm only.

Offer good only at the following
BURGER KING® restaurant:

2333 US Highway 70 • Swannanoa, NC

Limit one coupon per customer per visit. Not good with any other food offer. No substitutions, please. Cash redemption value: 1/100c.

Expires May 31, 2002