

The Footnills View

Second Class Postage Paid In Boiling Springs, N. C. 29017

WED., DEC. 23, 1981

"We See It Your Way"

$7.00 Per Year Single Copy 15 cents

Who'll Bid 25 ... Who'll Bid 50 ... Sold!

The auctioneer's chant of Col. Fred Stivers moves along the money and the cattle in this sequence of photos taken last Saturday week at the Honeyhaven Farm's angus sale. About 400 people attended the sale, one of the largest in this area, and bid on 63 lots of cows, calves, and bulls at an average price of $1,000 per lot. Honeyhaven is owned by Marvin and Pat Hamrick.

Truck Overtakes, Driver Badly Cut

A contract driver carrying mail for the Postal Service suffered severe lacerations on his face and back when his truck hit a bridge and overturned near Lattimore early Tuesday morning.

Bobby Greene, age unavailable, was admitted to Cleveland Memorial Hospital after Boiling Springs rescue responded to the one vehicle wreck shortly after 7 a.m.

No delay in mail delivery was reported. Greene was driving a "star" route--mail carried between post offices by an independent contractor--when the wreck occurred en route from Shelby to Rutherfordton.

"We got another truck and got the mail out on time," said Phil Cash, postmaster at the Lattimore office.

Icy roads continued to keep the squad busy answering three other calls Monday night and Tuesday morning. A wreck on Padgett Road at 7:30 p.m. and on Highway 74 West at 5 a.m. resulted in two drivers being carried to local hospitals where they were treated and released. A two-car wreck Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. on Highway 74 near Bob's Seafood resulted in two drivers being treated at the scene.

Boiling Springs Police reported no arrests this past week. Both fire departments passed a quiet week with no calls.

College Elects Mabry, Names Fund for Spangler

Jack Mabry of Shelby, has been elected vice-chairman of the Board of Advisors at Gardner-Webb College.

Mabry was selected an advisor in 1979. The advisors are chosen on the basis of their interest in christian higher education in general and Gardner-Webb College in particular.

Mabry is president and treasurer of Shelby Printing Company, president of Kings Mountain Office Supply and Equipment Company, a partner in Mabry Brothers and a director of MY, Inc.

He is chairman of the Cleveland County Mental Health Center Board, a member of the State Banking Commission, and a member of the Board of Directors at First Citizens Bank.

He and his wife, Katherine Quinn Mabry are members of Central United Methodist Church. Mabry has one son Tripp Mabry and four step-children Mrs. Kathy Burgin, Mrs. Peggy Porter, Mrs. Lynn Roach and D.W. Royster III.

Other officers include Chairman John Edgerton, vice-president and manager of WBTV-Charlotte; Secretary Robert J. Arey, Jr., Shelby; Career Placement Chairman Ed Hamilton, Shelby; Finance/Development Chairman Joe E. Cabaniss, Shelby; Student Life Chairman Jack Lutz, Shelby.

The purpose of the Board of Advisors is to aid the present and future program of Gardner-Webb College by advising the Board of Trustees, the President and members of the administrative staff.

Pat and Eloise Spangler of Shelby, N.C., were honored Tuesday, December 15, at a surprise luncheon at North Lake Country Club. They were presented with The Pat and Eloise Spangler Scholarship Fund at Gardner-Webb College. The fund was started by a few close friends from across the state as an expression of appreciation for the many services the Spanglers have rendered to individuals and causes throughout North Carolina.

Mrs. Spangler, the former Eloise Young, has actively served numerous cultural, service, health and community organizations throughout Cleveland County. Her direct services to Gardner-Webb College have been many and the Spangler Music Scholarship is named in honor of Eloise and Evelyn (Mrs. Earl) Spangler. This is the most prestigious music scholarship at the college with auditions held annually.

Pat Spangler, a native of Shelby, has compiled a life-time record of service to the county and the state. As Chairman of the Shelby Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Commission, he was instrumental in bringing millions of dollars of new industry to the area, including Pittsburgh Plate Glass and Fiber Industries. His record of local achievements and activities include President of Shelby Chamber of Commerce, Director of First National Bank, Director of United Way. In 1963, he was Shelby's "Man of the Year."

Pat Spangler has served as a Trustee or Corporate Officer of Gardner-Webb College for thirteen years. For eight years he was Chairman of the Board of Trustees and as National Chairman for two major campaigns he was directly responsible for raising more than $5,000,000 for the College. A dormitory at the College was named in his honor, and he, along with his brother Earl, built the football stadium and track at the College in honor of their father, Ernest W. Spangler.

Pat and Eloise Spangler have five children Lynn, Jane, Jean, Penny and Pat, Jr.

Editor's Note: Due to the Christmas holiday, the View is published a day early this week; hence the dateline at the top of this page carries Wednesday's date. The View will resume regular publication next week.

Area News

Cleveland Technical College will begin classes in 17 new subjects between Jan. 4 and 8 to be taught by the college's continuing education department. Classes will be offered in:

Advanced Macrame, Basic Drawing, Beginning Sewing, Ceramics, China, Genealogy, Heraldry, Mixed Media Painting, Nursing;

Oil and Portrait Painting, Pottery Design, Small Engine Repair, Stained Glass, Tailoring, Upholstery, Watercolor, and Woodworking

For further information, contact Cleveland Technical College at 484-4014.

A scholarship in honor of Mrs. Etta M. Elliott, the wife of former Gardner-Webb College President Philip L. Elliott, the wife of former Gardner-Webb College President Philip L. Elliott, has been established at the College. The scholarship has been initially endowed with a grant of $10,000. Priority will be shown in awarding the scholarship to students interested in careers related to the fine and performing arts.

It is expected that friends and former students will contribute to the scholarship in the future.

Craven E. Williams, president of Gardner-Webb College, commented, "This scholarship is an appropriate means of honoring an individual who has been so influential in shaping the direction for this College. The Elliotts are the key architects of the Gardner-Webb that we know today."

What's Open Christmas Day

Need a battery, a quart of milk, or a tank of gas? Christmas Day openings, and closings for local businesses are listed below:

Humphries' general store and gas station on Highway 150 South will open Christmas Day at 8:30 a.m. and close at 8:30 p.m. Fast Fare convenience store on Main Street will close Christmas Eve at 11 p.m. and open Christmas Day at 10 a.m. The store will close that night at 11 p.m.

Closed on Christmas Day will be Ingle's and Lowe's grocery stores, Hamrick's general store on Cliffside Road, the Snack Shop, the Campus Den, and Mutt's Chicken, all on Main Street. The Wagon Wheel on East College also will close.

"It'll be a regular day" on Christmas Day for visitors at Crawley Memorial Hospital according to hospital spokesperson Iris Rose. There will be no change in visiting hours that day, she said.