PECAN CHIFFON PIE

- 1 c. coarsely chopped pecans, toasted
- 1 c. dark brown sugar
- 1 1/2 c. plus 2 tbsp. water
- 5 tbsp. cornstarch
- 1/4 c. water
- 3/4 c. egg whites (at room temperature)
- 1/4 c. sugar
- 2 (8 or 9-inch) baked pie shells
- 1/2 pt. whipping cream

Spread pecans on a baking sheet and bake at 250° for 10 to 15 minutes, or until nuts barely begin to brown. Combine brown sugar and 1 1/2 cups plus 2 tablespoons water and bring to a boil. Mix together cornstarch and 1/4 cup water and stir with a whisk into boiling brown sugar mixture. Stir constantly and cook until mixture becomes clear and like thick pudding. Remove mixture from heat. Whip egg whites at high speed until peaks form. Slowly add 1/4 cup sugar and beat until peaks are stiff. Reduce mixer speed to low and gently add the hot brown sugar mix and nuts. Blend; do not overmix. Pile filling lightly into baked pie shells. Add whipped cream. Sprinkle a few nuts over top for garnish.

Note: This recipe is from The Charlotte Observer. This pie, made from a closely guarded recipe, was an institution for 26 years at S.H. Kress's in downtown Charlotte.

HOT FUDGE PIE

- 2 sq. unsweetened chocolate (or 4 tbsp. unsweetened cocoa)
- 1 stick margarine
- 1/2 c. flour
- 1 1/4 c. sugar
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1/4 c. boiling water
- 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Melt margarine and chocolate. Add the remaining ingredients. Bake at 425° for 10 minutes. Serve hot with whipped cream or ice cream.

MY ANSWER

BY DR. BILLY GRAHAM

Dear Dr. Graham: I am a teenager, and I get very alarmed when I read the headlines every day about the future. It just looks like there isn't any hope for the future, is there?—K.J.

Dear K.J.: No one knows the future—except God. Yes, there are many dark clouds on the horizon of our world. Some people are even feeling that things are out of control and we are hearing the terrible times of which the Bible speaks toward the end of history. Whether or not that is true, however, I want to point you to the only sure source of hope and strength as you face the future personally.

No matter what happens in our world, the most important thing you can do is trust God and commit your life to him. God is ultimately in control of this world—although for a time satanic powers have great strength. The Christians knows that there will never be perfect peace and happiness on this earth by human efforts alone. No political or economic solution will solve our problems completely. Why? The reason is that our basic problem is a spiritual problem—it is the problem of the human heart. The Bible says, "What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you?" (James 4:1). Only Christ can change the human heart—and he will, when we open our hearts and lives to him as Saviour and Lord.

The headlines each day warn you of the futility of man's efforts to solve his own problems apart from God. And they warn you as well that we need to trust Christ and commit our lives to him. Have you ever turned your life over to Christ and committed your future to him? If not, I urge you to do so right now.

Yes, there is hope for the future—hope in God. Some day Christ will come again, and all the sin and evil that infests our world will be taken completely away. That is our hope—and it can be yours as well as you turn to Christ.
