HIGH POINT, N. C., APRIL 11, 1923.

BOYS HAVE TORCHLIGHT PARADE IN INTEREST OF THE Y. M. C. A.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

CENT TO FUND

Undaunted by the rainy condition of the weather 350 boys of different schools of the city expressed their desire for a Y. M. C. A. in a flaring torchlight-parade which marched, attended by the Elks band, from the Sheraton hotel past the main street school and back to the railroad, Tuesday night April 3.

Many of the boys assembled at the Main street school and at 7:30 p. m. they marched to the city lot adjacent to the Elm street school where they were joined by other boys of the north section of town. The crowd then moved over in front of the Sheraton hotel where the Elks band rendered several selections. Charles Brooks, the high school cheer leader, then led the boys in several snappy yells for the "Y" which the parade formed and torches were distributed. Amid much noise and enthusiasm the parade then moved forward.

Shortly before the parade Thomas Gold, of the local high school, appeared before an assembly of some of the prominent men of High Point at a banquet at the Sheraton hotel with a splendid address on: What a Y. M. C. A. means to me. In the address Tom brought out, in a convincing manner, the uppermost importance of a Y. M. C. A. to the young man. He stated that High Point was far behind in that it is the only city of its size, in North Carolina which does not have a Y. M. C. A. On the whole the speech coming from the lips of a high school student was very inspiring to the men who have been

MR. McLARTY SPEAKS TO STUDENT BODY

Rev. McLarty, the pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church, spoke to the High school last Wednesday morning in chapel. His subject was "The Holy Spirit." He compared the personality of God, and of Jesus Christ with the personality of The Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit as declared by the minister, is a human being sent upon the earth in Jesus Christ's place to carry on the work. As an example of the workings and the presence of the Holy Spirit he called our attention to the account of Baptism of Jesus by John and also to the day of Pentecost. In conclusion Rev. Mr. McLarty stated that if we would get hold of that super-natural power we would be conquerors.

COACH HAISLIP CALLS TEAM FROM FIELD

ERNEST FUQUA TWIRLS WELL

With the score standing 5-2 in High Point's favor, Coach Haislip called his team from the diamond in the eighth inning last Friday afternoon at Jamestown and refused to resume play when the two umpires disagreed on a play at third base. With two men out in the eight frame a Jamestown runner interfered with Alphens White, the local third sacker, as he was attempting to field a batted ball; According to the rules of the national pastime, the runner should have been out but the base umpire who was calling balls and strikes ruled that the man was out. With both umpires and both teams disagreeing it was impossible to resume play.

High Point scored in the first inning when they pushed one run over the platter. The Jamestown batters were unable to solve the twists of Ernest Fuqua and were handed a goose-egg in the initial frame. The youthful southpaw struck out three men in this inning.

The locals put the game on ice in the second coat when four men crossed the gutta percha. Osborn, the Jamestown heaver, was driven from the mound in this inning and J. Willard took up the pitching duties. He pitched a creditable game, handing the locals blanks in the run column for the last six innings.

Jamestown scored two runs in the eighth inning as a result of several errors on the part of the local team.

Ernest Fuqua pitched a fine game, holding the Jamestown lads scoreless and striking out eight men during the six inning that he occupied the clay mound. Only three hits were gained off his delivery. The nearest he came to being scored on was in the fifth inning. Osborn, first man up, hit one to deep centerfield that looked good for a home run. He made a desperate effort to score but was thrown out at the plate. Renfry, the local catcher, was thrown about ten feet when Osborne ran into him, but he held the ball, thereby preventing a run.

A. White led the team in hitting with two safeties to his credit club has, for unless the pupils of the rooms have made a mistake in their choice the members of the club are the leaders of the school and if this is true they should so bring it about that both themselves and the school benefit by their membership in the club. However, he further stated the failure of the club to produce efficient results was perhaps due to the newness of the organization since this is the first year of its existence. But unless stated otherwise the club will be given another chance and the regular meeting will be held next time.

Score by innings:

Two of the members also discussed the matter and advised that the best thing to be done for all the members to show some individual interest in the club and not depend upon others to do the things that should be done in the club.

The ideal committee responded with

SENIORS DEBATE ON THE ABOLITION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

The Senior class of room 31 gave a debate Tuesday morning April 3 in the home room. The query was "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished".

Those representing the affirmative were Charles Farris, Margret Clinard and Beulah Dixon while the negative was composed of Ester Brown, James Fagan and Raymond Gray.

The affirmative argued that capital punishment was keeping the barbarous customs, and that better forms of punishment could be found and the negative argued that if it was abolished there would be more criminals and that it was not for revenge but for an example for would-be criminals.

The judges decided the negative had won. Those acting as judges were Mav Frazier, Richard Salisbury and William Windsor.
