Mrs. Strickland Hostess

Mrs. Roger Strickland very charmingly entertained the members of the Bridge Club and special guests on Thursday afternoon at the home of her mother Mrs. R. A. Ashworth, on Railroad Street.

Amid a setting of fall flowers five tables of bridge were arranged in the living room. After several progressions it was found that Mrs. W. W. Hare held high score and received a deck of cards, while low score prize, a bowl of narcissus bulbs, went to Mrs. C. L. Richardson. At this time the members of the club presented Mrs. W. W. Hare whose home was recently destroyed by fire, a lovely bridge luncheon set.

The hostess served a tempting two-course luncheon.

The tables were made up by the following guests: Mesdames G. M. Norwood, J. S. Flowe, A. J. Holliday, J. L. Doggett, W. W. Hare, W. P. Aycock, E. V. Woodard, W. L. Stanfield, Carl Worley, Hunter Price, J. D. Massey, H. V. Gaskill, C. L. Richardson, Doane, of Bristol, Va., Misses Rose Worley, Velma Talton, Mary S. Benoy, Mildred Creech, Vara Blackman and Margaret Harrison.

Entertains At Dinner

Covers were laid for eight, the following guest being present on this delightful occasion: Mrs. J. B. Person, Mrs. G. A. Tuck, Miss Margaret Etheredge, Mrs. Geo. D. Vick, Mrs. W. H. Call, Mrs. R. A. Ashworth and Mrs. R. B. Carrington.

Birthday Party

Mrs. W. C. Sasser entertained 35 girls and boys at a lovely party on Friday evening, Sept. 26th, from 7:30 till 10 o'clock, celebrating the 12th birthday of her daughter Ruby. Upon arrival a lively game called "Animals," served to break the ice, then other games, stunts and contests followed in such quick succession that there was not time for a dull moment. In the first contest Jessie Fuller O'Neal was winner and Edna Eason won in the second, appropriate prizes were presented to each. The children were then invited into the dining room which was decorated with late summer flowers, a color scheme of pink and white being used in the appointments as well as the refreshments. A pink birthday cake with 12 lights tapers in white rosebud holders made a lovely centerpiece. Block cream and wafers were served. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Misses Mabel Barnes and Margaret Cuthrell.

Selma Woman's Club

(Crowded out last week)

The Woman's Club held its first meeting of the club year on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Tuck with Mrs. J. M. O'Neal presiding. The hostesses were Mesdames Tuck, R. A. Ashworth and Mamie Tuck Candler. Mrs. O'Neal made an interesting talk which was an inspiration to the enthusiastic club women present. Reports were heard from the different committees. The chairman of the ways and means committee announced that a contest was to be put on with each member of the club as a cotestant. She gave each one a dime and asked them to see who could make most money from the dime by next meeting.

The constitution and by laws were read by Mrs. R. A. Ashworth. The new year books were presented to those present. The chairman of the literary department was happy to announce that Dr. Wade Atkinson of Washington, D. C., will lecture at the next club meeting on his travels abroad, probably choosing Sicily as his subject. The club welcomed Mrs. W. L. Etheredge as a member of the club.

The president turned the meeting over to the hostesses who served a salad and sweet course.

U. D. C. Meet

(Crowded out last week)

The Smithfield chapter of the U. D. C. met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Tuck with Mrs. Tuck and Mrs. Mamie Candler as joint hostesses. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. M. Sanders, Sr., of Smithfield. After the reports of committees the following delegates were appointed to attend the U. D. C. Convention to be held at the Sir Walter Raleigh hotel on Oct. 1, 2, and 3: Miss Lalah Rookh Stephenson and Mrs. W. J. Massey, Jr. The alternates were: Mrs. Roger Smith and Mrs. F. H. Brooks. Delegates to the general convention to be held in Asheville were: Mrs. W. L. Fuller and Mrs. H. L. Skinner. The alternates, Mrs. F. H. Brooks and Mrs. E. S. Abell. Mrs. F. Smith read the life of Mrs. Henry London and Mrs. Skinner read facts concerning the life of Mrs. E. E. Moffit. The guests were invited into the dining room which was effectively decorated in red and white. A buffet luncheon consisting of moulded chicken salad with U. D. C. in red, sandwiches, hot rolls, pickles, coffee, ice tea, cream cake and mints. Members present were: Mesdames E. S. Abell, W. L. Fuller, T. R. Hood, W. M. Sanders, Sr., H. L. Skinner, F. Smith, J. W. Stevenson, W. J. Massey, Jr., F. H. Brook, and Miss Lalah Rookh Stephenson, all of Smithfield and Mrs. Tuck and Candler. Guests were Mesdames W. H. Etheredge and Mrs. R. A. Ashworth.

PROGRAM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BY YOUNG PEOPLE

The Sunday evening service at the Selma Presbyterian church will be in charge of the young people, beginning at 7:30 P. M. The public is cordially invited.

"A few years ago, I found that I was very weak and nothing I ate seemed to give me any strength," writes Mrs. R. B. Douglas, 704 South Congress St., Jackson, Miss.
"I suffered intense pain in my head and back. At times I would have to hold to something to steady myself, so as to do my little work. I was worried about my condition.
"My mother told me that I should take Cardui. After taking two bottles, I felt stronger, but I kept on taking it until my head and back quit hurting. I took about six bottles in all, and have never quit praising Cardui."

Take Theford's Black-Draught for Constipation, Indigestion, Bilioousness.

DR. ATKINSON RETURNS CHECK FOR EXPENSES

Soon after Dr. Wade H. Atkinson had completed his work in conducting the tonsil-adenoid clinic at Selma and returned to Washington the Woman's Club of Selma, knowing that Dr. Atkinson had tendered all his services free of charge, felt that the very least that they could be expected to do for Dr. Atkinson was to pay his actual expenses during his stay here, this was gotten together and a check mailed to him. Since that time the secretary of the club has received a very nice letter from Dr. Atkinson in which he declines to accept the check, same being returned with the statement that he would not think of accepting any reimbursement for his expenses here or otherwise, for which the club and many others feel truly grateful.
