House Damaged by Fire.

An unoccupied four-room house belonging to John Harris, colored, was badly damaged by fire last night about 9 o'clock, the entire roof being destroyed. The Selma fire department was soon on the scene and saved all the building with the exception of the roof. John moved out more than a year ago and since then the house has been empty. His loss is around $150.

Mrs. G. D. Vick Hostess To Book Club Friday Afternoon

Mrs. G. D. Vick was gracious hostess to the Book Club and a few other friends Friday afternoon at her home on Massey street.

Handsome dahlias featured the decorations after roll call and minutes of the last meeting, the president, Mrs. Vick, appointed a book committee; Mrs. W. H. Call and Mrs. W. T. Woodard, to report at the next meeting.

The club is studying this year, "Other Peoples' Lives," the subject for Friday's meeting was, "Albert Payson Terburne." Mrs. E. V. Woodard gave a splendid biographical sketch and numerous laughable excerpts from his charming book, "To The Best of My Memory." Mr. Terburne is the son of a writer, whose pen name is Marion Harland and is himself author of the famous dog stories. Mrs. G. F. Brietz gave a reading from one of these which was touching and beautiful.

Next on the program was a very appropriate "Canine" contest which was won by Mrs. W. W. Hare the prize, a tiny vanity mirror with likeness of a dog on reverse side was most fitting. The consolation prize was drawn for by Mrs. Person and Mrs. Brietz, a toy dog was presented to Mrs. Person.

Unique cards bearing the resemblance of a dog directed the guests to their places at three tables arranged in the dining room, where petunias and marigolds in lovely effect were used on each table.

The delicious menu consisted of a salad course and fruit cake topped with whipped cream.

Special guests were; Mesdames, W. J. Crain, L. T. Singleton, W. W. Hare and A. J. Holliday.

Mrs. Suber Hostess.

Mrs. R. E. Suber very delightfully entertained the members of Circle "A" of the Methodist Missionary Society Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home on Railroad street.

During a very interesting business period it was found that this Circle had gone over the top and was ready to turn in to the church treasury the $100 pledged on the building fund. This is a very splendid record as this amount has been made more than two months before the close of the year.

A "guessing" contest was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Brietz and Mrs. Riley Renfrow each answered the same number of questions, in drawing Mrs. Renfrow was the lucky one and was presented an appropriate prize.

The hostess served Russian tea, sandwiches and wafers.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Banks entertained at a delightful three-course dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Spivey of Fort Bragg, on Friday evening. The guests were: Annis Spivey, Misses Kitty Carson, Jewell Rucker, Lieutenant Hasbruck, Lieutenant Reynard, and Captain Tilley all of Fort Bragg, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wellons and Miss Margaret Wellons of Smithfield.

MRS. SALLIE RENFROW PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Mrs. Sallie A. Renfrow died suddenly at her home near Micro Wednesday morning. A little grandson of the deceased, Ralph Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pittman, aged 12, had a serious heart attack Wednesday morning which excited the grandmother causing her death. The boy lived until last night at midnight when he passed away.

Multitudes who listened to the President on Tuesday evening must have confessed to themselves then, if never before, that this nation has been singularly blessed by fortune in having such a man as Herbert Hoover in the White House at a time of unexampled storm and peril. The speech was a revelation of straightforward, rugged and devoted statesmanship and of courage which meets every issue squarely in a two-fisted way, chin-up and eyes looking into the face of the enemy. Surely the American people cannot be cold or unresponsive to its appeal, its warning and its challenge. —Detroit Free Press.

WHEN YOU RIDE THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY

You are assured of a comfortable seat in a modern all-steel car; Opportunity for relaxation and exercise enroute; You are not fatigued as a result of being jostled about in a lighter form of conveyance; You are not exhausted as a result of nervous strain from driving an automobile yourself or from keeping your foot on the brake (figuratively), while conscious of the other fellow's driving; You are assured of practically on time arrival.

When you ride or ship your freight via SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM a part of your money is returned to you through some channel of trade, because of its large employment of labor, purchase of materials and supplies and generous contribution to taxes in various forms, all rebounding to the benefit of those residing in the territory which it serves.
