HOGE VICK, EDITOR

The School Song is prepared from and sung to the tune of Beulah Land.

ALMA MATER

'Tis with a heart of love divine,
I praise you, Alma Mater mine;
Within your walls of moulded clay,
I seek to find the higher way.

CHORUS

O Selma-Hi, sweet Selma-Hi,
As on thy training I rely,
I look ahead in years to come,
As on the Sea of Life I roam,
To dream of you and days of yore,
O Selma-Hi forevermore!

My Alma Mater is to me
A guiding hand of Liberty;
She beckons to me and I must wend
My way in Education's trend.

The pleasing memory's come to me,
To bring me cheering thoughts of
Thee—
To make me glad in every way,
And take me back to yesterday.

And as the years so swiftly go,
For you my love I'll ever show—
To think of you the whole day long,
And sing for you this cherry song.

SENIOR NEWS

The senior class has considered the adoption of the standard ring this year. They are awaiting for the company to send samples so they can make their selection.

This year the senior English class is based on a unit plan. Two weeks is set aside for each unit. The student is not required to complete this unit in two weeks but there are sixteen units to be completed during the school year. Each unit is divided into four distinct groups and each student is required to complete one group and as much of the other groups as they can. If a student does not complete all the units they can begin with the ones they left off the next year, and not have to go over the same thing again.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Last Wednesday afternoon the Glee club held its first meeting. Such a large number of students were interested in the club that Miss Barnes found it necessary to try out the voices and eliminate those that were not of a certain quality. Much enthusiasm was shown and we hope that under the direction of Miss Barnes that we will be able to enter the State Music contest in Greensboro next spring.

Last Wednesday the Band was organized under the leadership of Miss Barnes. A meeting will be held every Wednesday at which time the members will practice together. We hope to have a good band this year and to enroll a lot of new members.

Last Friday Mr. Liles held a meeting of all the boys interested in football and it was decided to have a school team. Jimmie Woodard was elected captain and after the meeting the members went out for some practice.

On Monday October 17, the Juniors

and Seniors held a tag football game. The game was very tight until the Junior fullback, Jimmie Woodard, threw a pass to Wilbert Parrish. The ball was knocked up into the air out of his hands by Harold Smith and landed in the hands of Billy Pearce who made the touchdown. The extra point was tried for but failed. Next Monday the Freshmen and Juniors play for the championship.

Tuesday afternoon the Dramatic club held a meeting in the school auditorium. Jimmie Woodard took charge of the business and then turned the program over to the chairman, Catherine Aycock. The roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read by Louise Blackman. Readings were given by Frances Henry, Ida Bell Wall, and Catherine Aycock. Then Hoge Vick, J. C. Avery, Fuller Suber, and William Adams gave a demonstration on the changing of scenes. The club then adjourned until next Tuesday.

The school is very much cleaner this year than last. Some parts have been painted and the lunch room looks especially nice. It has been painted in green and white. The parents are cordially invited to visit the school and lunch room and see exactly what we are doing.

SELMA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday worship.....11:40 a. m.
Come and bring your friends.

Let us all make every effort to be at worship next Sunday morning. It is true that irregular services and evangelistic meetings have upset our work and of course correspondingly discouraged attendance. We have finished meetings of a protracted nature for the year and glad to say that they have most all been rather successful. Twenty-two have united with this group of churches during the past three or four months most of which came on their profession of faith in Christ. Our prayer is "May God add to His church daily such as should be saved." Let us all with one accord continue our prayer for the work of the Spirit in the Salvation of Souls.
Come and let us worship Him together Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

A MODERN PENTECOST

Lord God, the Holy Ghost,
In this accepted hour,
As on the day of Pentecost,
Descend in all thy power.

We meet with one accord
In our appointed place,
And wait the promise of the Lord,
The Spirit of all grace.

The young, the old inspire
With wisdom from above;
And give us hearts and tongues of fire,
To pray, to praise, and love.

Self-Examination by Parent.
Do I know definitely what the school is doing?

Do I know what studies my child is pursuing in school?

Do I know what studies my child is excelling in and what studies my child learns with difficulty?

Have I made the acquaintance of my child's teacher?

Do I simply sign my child's report card, or do I read it carefully before signing it?

Do I read the annual school reports faithfully?

Have I ever talked over school matters with the teacher?

Have I visited the P. T. A. enough to form an intelligent opinion of its value?

The Response Of The People

A Few of the Hundreds of Telegrams Congratulating President Hoover on His Des Moines Address:

"Your Des Moines speech is a stroke of genius in the method of clarifying immense issues and problems to the minds of millions of hearts. It is bracing to hope, courage and faith. No political utterance this year has been received with such emphatic approval by the people of Kansas as this one."

Arthur Capper,
Topeka, Kan.

"The farmers of this state and this nation have a hard row to hoe. With your help they'll hoe it. Your address on farm problems at Des Moines and your program for solving those problems is everlastingly right and sound. We cannot afford at this time to endanger our home market for lower tariffs. They must be maintained and the price paid farmers increased. Your program promises most to the farmer and hold on to Hoover."

Herman Lowell,
(Former master of the National Grange.)

Syracuse, N. Y.

"The farmer must have tariff protection to guard his great home market. If tariffs are lowered his sufferings will be increased. He must have better prices and an easing of tax and mortgage burdens. Your address at Des Moines revealed your clear understanding of these needs and your ability to lead in securing them. Every thinking farmer will support your broad and sound reconstruction program for farm and home."

Frank J. Riley,
Secretary, New York State Grange,
Sennett, N. Y.

"Congratulations on masterful address. You have given cause for renewed confidence and hope."

L. J. Taber,
Master National Grange.

"As a farmer in the Corn Belt of Illinois for the last fifteen years accept my heartiest congratulations and support on your very sound, sane and courageous speech delivered to the nation from Des Moines last night."

F. H. Flansworth,
Chicago, Ill.

"New York State farmers, with burdens fully as heavy as those of farmers of other states, have received no effective help during the last year from their own chief executive. They will recognize from your address at Des Moines that in you they have a leader upon whom they can depend fully because of your thorough comprehension of the needs of the farmer, the business man and the nation."

Thomas H. Munroe,
(Chairman of the Council of Agriculture and Markets of New York State.)

"The speech was a glorious success. As a morning paper not particularly friendly said, several million voters got off the fence last night."

Arch W. Shaw,
Chicago, Ill.

"Heartly and sincere thanks for most wonderful and constructive address any statesman ever delivered to his people. Your speech tonight will make America understand its problems, appreciate your great service and unite them not only for your re-election, but for real co-operation in the future. The farmer the wage earner and the investor are better Americans tonight as a result of your clear, constructive speech."

Alderman Oscar F. Nelson,
Vice President Chicago Federation of Labor, Chicago.

Snake Driver Wins In Boxing Bout

Snake Driver, Selma welterweight, won a decisive victory over Lee Smith of Rosewood in a three round bout in Goldsboro Friday night. Driver had Smith outclassed throughout the fight, punishing him severely with left hooks and right crosses to the body, Smith was much too tall for Driver, Snake being unable to reach the jaw. The shortness of the fight was all that saved Smith from a knockout. He seemed very groggy in the last round and could hardly have gone two more rounds. Three other Selma boys fought in the prelims. Robert Cox, Selma, won a decision over Len Sparks of Goldsboro. Cox showed fine spirit throughout the entire three rounds and Sparks was decisive. H. J. Cuthrell fought Garland Norris to a draw after three rounds of bitter fighting. Pete Brown suffered a technical knockout in the first round of a scheduled three round bout, at the hands of A. B. Holland.

Miss Spivey's Mother Dead.

Miss Annie Spivey received a message yesterday announcing the sudden death of her mother which occurred at her home in Rich Square. Miss Spivey, who is a member of the local school faculty, left at once for her home. Miss Spivey's many friends here deeply sympathize with her in the loss of her mother.

Son (who has caught his father kissing the maid): "Whatcha doin', Pop, kissin' the maid?"
Pop (thinking quickly): "Bring me my glasses, son: I thought it was your mother."

Bobby: "Daddy a boy at school told me I looked just like you."
Dad (proudly): "And what did you say?"

Bobby: "Nothin'. He was bigger'n me."

PRESS COMMENT ON ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT AT DES MOINES

New York Times.
It will be said that it was a new Hoover who disclosed himself yesterday in Iowa. It was at least a Hoover standing up with a new vigor of language in his own defense, and making an appeal to his countrymen which was touched with an emotion not hitherto supposed to be characteristic of him. Whatever the effect of his speech upon the Presidential campaign, he may rest in the belief that in it he has put forth the best that is in him.

President Hoover's Des Moines speech comes close to being the most statesmanlike utterance of his career; it certainly is the most dramatic. In one passage of reasoning lighted by emotion it has enabled him to take the offensive in the campaign. * * * Now danger was faced and averted Mr. Hoover describes in detail. There was a ring of pardonable pride in his words when he spoke of "the battalions and regiments and armies" mobilized by the administration in defense of the American dollar.—The Sun, New York.

In the enormous scope of subjects discussed and in the mastery of complex problems of finance, taxation, tariffs and economics, President Hoover's address is a revelation to the public. Governor Roosevelt has not touched upon many of these subjects. He seems to be ignorant of them, or, if not ignorant, he prefers to be silent. The country can not fail to draw a comparison between the man who has fought the nation's fight, and the man who disparages his work while offering no program.—Washington Post.
