A Large Potato.

The editor of the Johnstonian—Sun is much indebted to Mr. B. E. Batten of Selma, Route 2, for a fine Porto Rico sweet potato which he presented us last Saturday. Mr. Batten said that the potato weighed 5 pounds and 11 ounces. He said that he had a very fine crop of potatoes this year despite the dry season.

LIFE'S TIMELY NUGGETS.

A lot of us applaud because we're glad the party's over.

The hardest job of all is trying to look busy when you're not.

Men really have the best of it, and the women know it.

Even if you don't get anywhere it's a satisfaction to know you did your best.

Everybody would be a paid reformer if raising money were just a little easier.

Once a month many people complain of their family's extravagance.

A man will forgive and forget almost any negligence around the house except letting the salt shaker get empty.

Never again does a man feel as important and successful as on the day he graduated from college.

Everybody seems to turn partisan after they've received the proper publicity for being non-partisan.

Sunday School Class Meeting.

A short but enthusiastic business meeting was conducted by the president. Following this, the hostess presented games and contests in which each one participated most heartily. Mrs. W. L. Etheredge was the lucky winner. Refreshments, consisting of salad and hot tea were served. The class was fortunate on this occasion to have as its guest Mrs. Robert Noble, of Raleigh, who delightfully entertained at the close of the meeting with several piano selections.

Selma P. T. A. Hold Their First Meeting

A very large crowd was in attendance at the initial meeting of the Selma Parent-Teachers' Association Monday evening, Oct. 24th, which was held in the school auditorium.

Mrs. W. W. Hare presided and one verse of "America" was used as the opening song.

Mrs. Hare outlined briefly the main objectives for the year's work, welcomed the teachers back to town and asked for the co-operation and support of both parents and teachers in carrying forward the most important project—that of helping the "underprivileged child."

Miss Anne Thacker put on a delightful program using pupils from her 3rd grade in a little playlet. This was followed by several musical numbers, the first a vocal solo, "A Tree", by Mr. E. W. Grove of Smithfield, Miss Virginia Baines playing the accompaniment at the piano. Two trumpet solos by Mr. Jimmy Gerow from Smithfield, were accompanied by Mr. Grove, and all brought much applause.

Supt. Tuttle next made a very timely talk stressing the importance of children attending school every day and preparing each daily lesson with great care. He pledged his best efforts and asked the co-operation of the teachers, parents and community.

Attendance prizes went to Mrs. Perkins' Second grade. At the close of the meeting everyone was invited to the lunch room where the teachers formed a receiving line and were greeted by the members of the association, after which tea and frosted cake were served.

When Cap'n Comes To Town.

The lovely ladies here an' there Adorn themselves with sunny smiles; You see them flittin' everywhere, An' usin' all their winsome wiles.

Oh, he's a handsome Buccaneer— A thievin' pirate of gal's heart; An' he hain't got a bloomin' peer Can hold him light in Fashion's arts When he comes down to town.

His years are thirty-nine, or more— An' 'loomin' spry is he at that; I'm hanged if he's a bit too pore To wear a big ten-gallon hat.

He's got me whupped in ev'ry way, A-chasin' of the village belles; But I hain't got a word to say Because he takes them courtin' spells.

WINS FINE HOG AT EAST COAST STORE HERE

Mr. W. A. Eason won a fine Duroc Jersey hog at the East Coast Store here a few days ago which weighed 150 pounds. The store had issued trade tickets with number attached which was given to each customer. On Saturday afternoon, October 15th, the box in which these numbers had been placed was opened and the person present who held the number corresponding to the first number drawn from the box got the hog, and this proved to be Mr. Eason who is a young farmer living out from Selma, and whose crop of hogs is very limited this year, therefore the drawing of this fine Duroc hog may prove a real blessing to this family.

Snake Driver Boxes Again.

Snake Driver, of Selma, and Russell Insoce, of Rocky Mount, were the headliners in a boxing card at Goldsboro Friday night. Because of the Wayne Fair, there were very few fans present to witness the fights. Those who were not there surely missed something well worth seeing. Driver and Insoce were on the card to work off a grudge with the gloves. Because of the small number of fans, the boxing frays were called off and money refunded.

The refund was some satisfaction to the payers but none to the fighters. They wanted to fight, were going to fight, and nobody was going to stop them. They went three rounds with the gloves, slugging each other for all they were worth. Not satisfied with this, they took off the gloves and tried the effects of bare knuckles until a police officer stopped them.

Insoce was starting out of the ring after the knuckle-busting when the word "yellow" floated to his ears from the direction of Snake. And then the chairs went up in the air, and the police officer entered onto the scene again. Then peace and quiet reigned supreme.

Driver and Insoce are to fight again Friday week in what promises to be a crack-a-jack. Let's go up to Goldsboro and look 'em over.

YOUR NAME put on Bibles, hymn books, belts, hats, ELECTRICALLY in gold or silver. Guaranteed to stay. Come in and let us show you. Small charge.
