Eighth Grade News.

The eighth grade boys elected their officers Monday. The following were elected:

President—Leslie Ward.
 Vice President—Murray Lane.
 Secretary-Treas.—Fred Woodard.
 Sponsor—Mr. David Liles.
 Grade Mother—Mrs. Hunter Price.

Junior News.

A Junior Class meeting was held last Friday afternoon for the purpose of finding some way to make money for the banquet. It was decided to have kodak films developed for the Siddell Studio in Raleigh. A small commission will be received for each roll of films that is sent in. To have the films developed through the Junior Class at the Siddell Studio, they will cost the regular price and will be returned in three days after being received. The patronage of the students and public will be greatly appreciated. The class is also selling school supplies.

Senior News.

The Senior Class was very much pleased to have as its guest last Wednesday morning, its grade-mother, Mrs. G. D. Vick. She expressed her thanks to the Senior Class for electing her. Mrs. Vick as grade-mother for the class in its Sophomore year and we are very glad to have her with us again.

On Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Seniors held a class meeting to vote on the mascots for the ensuing year. It was decided by the class to have two as formerly. The mascots elected were: Mary Lou Driver and Billy Black. We are very glad to have these little people to serve us.

The band practiced for the first time this year on Wednesday afternoon. Sixteen members were present

Four of these are new members. As only a half an hour is given each week for practice under the direction of Miss Baines. The band with the Glee Club hopes to enter the State Music Contest in Greensboro next spring.

The first meeting the band has had out of school was Tuesday night at 7 o'clock. The members practiced some of the old pieces and they hope to soon take up some new ones.

The Philomathean Literary Society had its weekly meeting on Thursday, October 20, 1932. The president, Bessie Hatcher, called the meeting to order and J. C. Avery Jr., secretary, called the roll. The president announced that the committee had selected the flower, motto, and colors, which were voted on. They are as follows:

Motto—Push, Pull, or Get Out of the Way.

Flower—Pansy.

Colors—Purple and Gold.

The program came next which was as follows:

Devotional—Ruth Avery

Poem—Helen Dixon Massey.

Life of Shakespeare—Willis Dewar

One of Shakespeare's Plays—Daisy Adams.

Poem—James Smith.

5 Minute Talk—Elsie Earp.

Current Events—Fred Archer Woodard.

This program was enjoyed by everyone. After the program the Society went into the auditorium and sang.

At the weekly meeting of the Alphan Literary Society on October 20 the following were selected:

Flower—Golden Rod.

Colors—Black and Gold.

Motto—Esse quam videri—To be rather than to seem to be.

Hilda Earp then read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. After this they had the program which was as follows:

 Devotional—Ester Ward.
 America—Society.
 Recitation—Thanie Stallings.
 Talk—Louise Blackman.
 Solo—Sarah Creech.
 Current Events—Francis Henry.
 Poem—Lucille Doggett.
 Talk—Edna Eason.
 John Galsworthy Creator of a Family—William Adams.
 This program was very much enjoyed by everyone.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic club held a meeting Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Spear lead the meeting and it was held in order that some of the members might be eliminated. When the club was organized there was an enrollment of eighty and it was necessary to eliminate all but about twenty. Each person was given a trial and the twenty possessing the most talent will be selected. The meeting then adjourned until next Tuesday.

The Football practice is coming along fine and the team is going to have a game with Smithfield the eighth (8) of November.

P. T. A. Meeting.

The first meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held in the school auditorium Monday night October 23, 1932. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. W. W. Hare, the president. The audience sang America after which they were led in prayer by Rev. W. H. Crain. A short play was then presented by the third grade under the direction of Miss Anne Thacker. Messers George Grove and James Gerow of Smithfield rendered several selections on the trumpet and piano.

Mr. Tuttle in a talk to the parents stressed the fact that it was necessary for every child to attend school as much as possible.

The parents were then invited into the Lunch room where they were served light refreshments by Miss Della Stroupe and the Home Economic Class 2.
