JUNIOR NEWS

On Friday afternoon a representative of the Crowell Publishing company presented a play to the Junior Class by which they can raise money. Subscriptions are being taken to the magazines edited by this company. The Class will receive a percentage from each subscription that is taken, either new or renewal. The class was divided into two sections, the Sombrosos and High Hats with leaders for both sides. A battle is on to see which side can get the most subscriptions. Another meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at which time a representative of the Curtis Publishing Company presented practically the same plan to the class as the other representative. With these two companies they are selling several magazines which are about the best selection that one can pick from. Subscribe or renew your subscription with a member of the Junior Class.

BAND NEWS

Monday night the Band met at the school house. Miss Baines selected the pieces that will be played at the play given by the Dramatic Club, Friday night week.

GLEE CLUB NEWS

The Glee Club met Wednesday. The music that had been ordered had come. The Club practiced the pieces that they expect to give at the Dramatic Club play and at the Chapel program which the Glee club will give on December 23. The Glee club has also been practicing after school. The list of pieces that will be sung in the State Music Contest has come and work will be begun as soon as possible.

DRAMATIC CLUB NEWS

The Dramatic Club has started working on "The Laughing Cure" and they will also give "The Beau of Bath" at the next P. T. A. The cast for "The Laughing Cure," the play to be presented by the Dramatic Club is as follows:
Dr. St. George Carey, A Modern Inventor Who Turns the Trick, Hoge Vick.
Jimmie Mason, Mrs. Hanson's Brother, Jimmie Woodard.
Dr. Whitcomb, A physician of the Old School, J. T. Wilkins.
Clarke Hanson, A Man of Business, Ernie Godwin.
Laura Hanson, His Wife, With No Sense of Humor, Elizabeth Hall.
Gay Hanson, His Sister, Marie Brown.
Kitty Clyde, His Stenographer Who Has An Eye For Jimmie Louise Blackman.
May Ellen Perry, A Neighbor Who Is Full of Henry.
Sarah, The Maid, Violet Hayes.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Philomathean Literary Society had its weekly meeting on Thursday, December 1, 1932. The meeting was called to order by the President who asked the Secretary to call the roll. After the roll was called the following program was given:
Devotional, Dorothy Brannon.
Life of Edgar Allen Poe, Raymond Phillips.
Account of One of Poe's Stories, Virginia Roberts.
Talk, Creola Creech.
Story, Ernest Stallings.
Current Events, J. P. Hall.
Life of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Robert Batten.
Poem, Annie Laurie Hare.
Story, Lewis Creech.
Poem, Albert Batten.
The Society then adjourned until the next meeting.
The president opened the meeting of the Alkhan Literary Society on Thursday, December 1, 1932. The Secretary called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. A business session was then held, after which the following program was given:
Devotional, Ethel Bailey.
Poem, Ruth Hughes.
Talk, Thelma Lynch.
Recitation, Hazel Lane.
Current Events, Helen Price.
Drama, Robert, Leland Grier.
Poem, Herbert White.
Poem, Lena Duggins.
Others were met off last week for the members of the two Literary Societies. These girls are very appreciative for this purpose and are looking forward for them to come.

The two Literary Societies will give a joint program in Chapel December 9 at the regular Chapel period. A debate is staged for that day. The query is Resolved, That the United States Should Cancel Allied Debts Contracted During The World War. There are also various other numbers on the program. Everyone is invited to attend.
Thursday afternoon directly after the adjournment of the two Literary Societies the high school students met in the auditorium to select the school colors. The school colors have formerly been black and gold but due to so many other schools in the county having these colors it was deemed necessary for Selma to choose some other colors. Several combinations of colors were voted on but dark blue and gold were chosen as the official colors.

ATHLETIC NEWS

The boys basket ball team has ordered it's uniforms. The Athletic Association is sponsoring several things to help secure money to get the necessary equipment for the team. It is hoped that everyone will cooperate with them to help get their supplies, because we want to boose the Selma team.

DEBATING CLUB NEWS

Mr. Jervis has planned several debates on different questions with the schools of the county. They will also give a debate at the next chapel program, with the Literary Societies.

T. E. L. Cass Meets.

Mrs. C. E. Kornegay, Mrs. Norman Screws and Mrs. Dora O'Neal were hostess to the T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Sunday school at the Spacious home of Mrs. Kornegay on Massey street, Monday afternoon of last week.

The meeting was opened by the president, after which Mrs. A. J. Holliday read for the devotional the 100th psalm. This was followed with prayer by Mrs. W. J. Crain.
Mrs. G. M. Willets reported that the Thanksgiving committee gave baskets of a sorted fruits to seven shut ins, and groceries to one needy family. Plans were made by which individual members of the club will spread Yuletide Joy among some needy children at Christmas.

An Autumn leaf contest which required the recognizing of the many colored leaves was won by Mrs. W. J. Crain after having tied with Mrs. E. J. Sasser. A nice box of Pecans was given the winner. Sandwiches, twisted doughnuts and tea was served by the hostesses.

Dr. H. L. Smith Addresses School

Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Dr. Henry Louis Smith, President Emeritus of Washington & Lee University, made a delightful address before the Selma High School and a number of visitors. Dr. Smith, who began his teaching career in Selma, is always received enthusiastically on his return visits. His old pupils, as well as the citizenry of Selma, take great pride in having a partial claim on this distinguished gentleman.
A short devotional period was held; Rev. W. J. Crain read a scripture lesson and offered prayer. Supt. Tuttle introduced one of Dr. Smith's former pupils, Dr. Geo. D. Vick, who, in turn introduced the speaker.
Dr. Smith compared the battle of life to a game of football in terms easily understood and thoroughly appreciated by his audience. His remarks were grouped under six respective heads:
1. Game. In the game you've got to overcome resistance and the fellow who likes the rocking chair and hates perspiration is a failure on the gridiron of life. You must work and fight for everything you want—there is no success for the lazy. The glory of the game is in overcoming difficulties.
2. Coach. The kind of coach is most important—an untrained leader will ruin any game and lose any chance of victory. In the game of life, the day of trained leadership is here and now. It takes an educated person to win the game on the gridiron of life.
3. Team. All must work together for success. The keynote of the 20th century is organized teamwork. Loyalty to your team, to your home, your church, your school, your State and your fellowman.

4. Pledge. No one can make a good man who allows himself to drink, stay out late or overeat. Unless you can control your body, your appetite and your passions, you'll never win the battle of life.
5. Daily grind. Learn the lesson of daily grind, work, getting ready for the game. The lazy men all drop out. There are those who play football by waving flags, tooting horns, and shouting; but the star player in the game has spent hours and hours of hard work and sweat in preparation. If you cannot stand the daily grind of Algebra, English and other subjects, hard to master, you'll never win the game. Your school days are days of preparation for the big game of life. The daily grind makes the scholar as well as the successful business man.
6. Bleachers. When all the thousands are moving flags, tooting horns, yelling and enthusiasm is high, you feel that you are bound to win. Cultivate enthusiasm for everything you undertake—fall in love with your job—that's the way to win success. You'll carry your ball to the long fought goal line.

Debtor Nations Are Told They Must Pay

Washington, Nov. 25.—Pay up on December 15, America has advised her foreign debtors, and thus create a more favorable atmosphere for the reconsideration of the whole war debt problem by a commission which President Hoover will ask Congress to authorize.
This was the gist of notes forwarded by Secretary Stimson in response to the requests of France, Great Britain and Belgium, for an extension of the present moratorium and a re-examination of the debt situation.
"As to the suspension of the installment of the British debt due December 15, which is one of the objectives of your note, no authority lies within the executive to grant such an extension and no facts have been placed in our possession which could be presented to Congress for favorable consideration," said the note presented to Ambassador Lindsay of Great Britain. Similar passages were contained in the notes to France and Belgium. The communication forwarded to London continued:
"Such importance is attached by our government and people to maintenance of the original agreement in force by the payment on December 15 as to far outweigh any reason now apparent for its suspension, and by such payments the prospects of a satisfactory approach to the whole question, in my opinion, would be greatly increased."

"Guessing" is Dangerous when baby's health is concerned

FEW mothers are able to distinguish between an infant's healthy cry and one of actual pain. Merely to guess about it is dangerous... A disregard of the "irritation cry" may alter your child's whole disposition.

Leading doctors now tell us that at least 66% of all babies are allowed to suffer needlessly the torture of Urea Irritation. The stinging uric acids form tiny, gritty crystals... invisible to the eye, yet harsh and cruel to tender skin.

Z. B. T. Baby Talcum is made precisely for this type of irritation. This mildy-medicated compound powder contains a special ingredient which not only draws every trace of moisture from the skin-folds, but actually neutralizes the dangerous acids... Z. B. T. soothes and heals, guards against infection and keeps your baby's skin sweet and healthy.

Protect your own skin, too, with Z. B. T. When perspiration causes painful chafing, this pure bland talcum brings blessed relief. Use it also for "burning feet"—after shaving—and as a deodorant.

Your druggist or chain store... Z. B. T. in three sizes—50c, 25c and 10c. Resent substitutes! Get a can of Z. B. T. today and test it yourself. Or, if you prefer, mail the coupon, with 4 cents to cover postage, and we'll gladly send you a full-size "Junior" can.

Black-Draught

Clears Up Sluggish Feeling

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark.
"If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."
P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the "new, pleasant-tasting" SYRUP of Theford's Black-Draught.
