Mrs. Coolidge Finds

From Shopping To Gone To Office As Had Come Home As Ill; Death Was Un
though The Only Liv
President Had Complai digestion For The Past Weeks.

Northampton, Mass., Jan. 5.— vin Coolidge, 30th president of the United States, died suddenly today.
He was 60 years old last July 4.
Returning from a shopping tour, Mrs. Coolidge found the body of her husband on the bed in a room at The Beeches, the estate to which he retired at the conclusion of his career at the national capitol. His death was wholly unexpected although for the past three weeks Mr. Coolidge had complained of indigestion.

Doctors said death was due to heart disease.
The former president, who up to the time of his death was the only surviving former president of the United States, had gone to his law office as usual this morning.

After a short time in the office Mr. Coolidge became distressed and decided to return home. Harry Ross, his secretary, returned to The Beeches with him. Mrs. Coolidge, meanwhile, had gone to the center of the city shopping.

Mr. Coolidge assured Ross he would be alright after a short rest and after aiding the former president to the bedroom, Ross returned to the first floor of the house to await the return of Mrs. Coolidge.

When Mrs. Coolidge twenty minutes later returned and Ross told her of Mr. Coolidge's illness she went immediately to the bedroom.
There she found the former president dead.

The doctor said Mr. Coolidge had been dead about fifty minutes and that he must have died within a few minutes of the time he was found in the room.

The former president was leading a quiet life since he moved to Northampton after leaving the presidency. He had been in the city since March 1929 and was in good health until the day before he died. He had spent the past few days in the city and the papers had reported that he was in good health.

Calvin Coolidge was born in Whitcomb, Vermont, on Jan. 31, 1892. He was the son of a farmer and a milliner. He attended the common schools and the Central Vermont Normal school.
He was a member of the United States Army and served in the Philippines during the war.

The President was a village storekeeper, a farmer, and a

and selling
