IN THE MOUNTAINS

(Ruby Creech)

The flowers on the mountain sides are beautiful to see,
And, oh, if I could just live there, how happy I would be!
To watch the barking dogs go by,
and hear the crickets sing,
As to and fro the milkmaids go, and hear the cowbells ring.

To climb upon the mountain tops, when evening shadows fall, And cast my wand'ring eyes below to see the lights o'er all.
It seems as if the stars above have fallen to the ground, And making light for everyone to travel through the town.

Just see the rushing water flow o'er rocks and down the hills, Until at last it rolls into the whirling water wheels!
Such things one sees in mountains, away out in the west—We like them for they've always been a home of happiness.

A HOME

(Hazel Driver)

Far up in the green hills, away from the maddening crowds of the city, there is a beautiful cabin that is surrounded by fragrant flowers and massive trees that seem to touch the rolling clouds above. Here and there, bunches pink and daffodils spring from the lawn and terraces. The twisting honeysuckle and the rambling rose climb the side of the little cabin that is hewn from rough logs.

The little home has no connection with the outside world except the narrow, winding trail that leads down to the little village below. The home does not have all the necessities of life, but it is filled with the beautiful love of a white haired old man and woman. It is a home to be envied.

A home does not have to contain fine furniture and cars; but, if it is to be a home, it must have the love of a good father and mother. It is just what they make it, whether it be a fine mansion or a little log cabin far up in the hills, away from the noise and bustle of the city.

Side Quit Hurting, Got Stronger, Well; CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well."
Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

SAFETY OF RAILROADS BOOSTED BY SOUTHERN

Atlanta, Ga., May 8—Commenting on the remarkable safety record of the railroad of the United States for the year, 1932, a statement issued by the Safety Bureau of the Southern Railway System points out that on the Southern no passenger lost his life as the result of a train accident during the year.

Complete reports for 1932 which have now been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission show that during the year the railroads of the United States handled 480,- 000,000 passengers and that among this vast number there was only one fatality in a train accident.

This is the best safety record in the history of the railroads of this country, 480,000,000 passengers having been carried with only one fatality. Passengers on the Southern Railway System rode a total distance of 405,514,268 miles during 1932 without a single fatality.

POISON in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell.
