Army Rucruiting Station In Raleigh Sets New Record In August—Accepts 43 Young Men From Johnston County For Enlistment

Sergeant Jennings B. Smith, Officer in charge of the Army Recruiting Station in Raleigh, announces that he accepted 149 men for enlistment in the Army, at the Raleigh station, during the month of August. This is a record for the Raleigh station and is believed to be a record for the State. Out of the 149 men accepted for the Army, Sgt.* Smith states that 43 were from TOBACCO STALKS the highest number of men ever accepted from this county in one month, Smith said.
