Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Dinner Guests Of Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson

Robert H. McNeill, Republican candidate for governor, and Mrs. McNeill were entertained at a dinner in the private dining room of the Gabriel Johnston Hotel Saturday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Wade H. Atkinson of Washington, D. C., who are spending some time at their cottage at Atkinson Mill in O'Neals township.

Candidate McNeill was in Smithfield to speak at a Republican rally at the court house Saturday night. He is from Statesville, but has resided for a number of years in Washington where he has practiced law.

The McNeills and the Atkinsons, despite differences in political party affiliation, became very good friends in Washington. Dr. Atkinson has a nephew who is a law partner of Mr. McNeill.

Present at the dinner besides the honorees were: Mrs. James T. Gant of Macon, Ga., Mrs. Edward W. Pou, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex D. Holman.

SELMA 4-H CLUB GIRLS ON TEAM

Two of Selma's 4-H girls are members of the Johnston County Poultry Judging team this year. Those making team are Mabel Parker and Dorothy Wilkins, Selma; Marjorie Dickenson, Cleveland, and Doris Crocker, Pine Level. Dorothy, Doris and Marjorie are active members of the team and Mabel will serve as alternate. Scores kept by the coach, Mr. R. M. Holder, determined those to be on team.

These girls will go to State college Friday to compete with 4-H Poultry Judging teams from other counties of North Carolina. The remaining portion of the day is to be spent enjoying the educational exhibits and attractions on the State Fair midway.

On Friday night it is customary for the Poultry, Seed, and Livestock Judging teams to attend a banquet at State college. There the winners are announced and ribbons awarded.

To Preach Last Sermon At Pleasant Plains

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, October 13, will mark the final service under the direction of Rev. Clarence Bowen as pastor of Pleasant Plains church.

Rev. Mr. Bowen has served this church for the past two years and has seen its membership grow with considerable rapidity. An appropriate sermon will be preached at the morning hour and every member is urged to be present.

Visiting from Mr. Bowen's home town, Durham, will be several friends including a brother, C. J. Bowen, and Mrs. Bowen's mother and sister.

Upon the pastor's resignation last June, the Rev. G. C. Joyner of Smithfield was elected to serve the church during the coming year. Mr. Joyner comes to Pleasant Plains Free Will Baptist church as no stranger, having for the past two years led successive revivals here. A recent one closed with more than twenty additions to the congregation.

A whole-hearted invitation is given to all to hear Mr. Bowen's final message.

Woman's Missionary Union To Meet Oct. 17

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Johnston Baptist Association will meet with Pisgah church, about 7 miles west of Smithfield, near the county home, on Thursday, October 17, beginning at 9:45 a. m. and closing at 4:00 p. m.

Dinner will be served on the grounds by the churches of District No. 2. The full program is being published elsewhere in this issue of The Johnstonian-Sun.
