

COURT NEWS

A heavy docket was disposed of in Recorder's court last week, the following cases coming up for trial:

Earl Core was found guilty of possession of a whiskey still, six gallons of illegal whiskey for sale, and manufacturing illegal whiskey. He was given four months on the roads, fined $50 and taxed with the cost. The road term is to be suspended upon condition he does not violate the alcoholic law again in two years. The fine was later reduced to $37.50.

Matthew Holt, colored, who was convicted of possession of five quarts of illegal whiskey for sale and who was given four months on the roads, took an appeal.

Hardy Bass, 45, of Selma, was given 90 days on the roads for driving while intoxicated. The sentence is to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and cost.

Rommie Williams, colored, who was convicted of possession of illegal whiskey for sale and actual sale of illegal whiskey, was given four months on the roads.

Jim Edwards, 33, drew a 6 months road sentence for assault with a deadly weapon on his wife.

Albert Anderson, charged with careless and reckless driving, was found not guilty. For driving without a driver's license prayer for judgment was to be continued upon the payment of a $10 fine and the cost, but he took an appeal.

The state took a nol pro in the cases against Frank Utley, charged with violating the stock laws, and A. J. Worley, charged with driving while intoxicated.

Wright Hood, colored, and V. C. Woodall, charged with operating a car while intoxicated, were found not guilty.

Thomas Dupree and Paul Ivey were charged with robbery. Probable cause was found and both defendants were bound over to Superior court. Dupree was also charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated and was convicted. A 90 day road term is to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the cost. He gave notice of appeal.

Willie A. Stephens, colored, was convicted of driving a car while under the influence of liquor and was given 90 days on the roads, the term to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the cost.

Millard Radford, Smithfield, Route 2, charged with driving while intoxicated, was found not guilty. For careless and reckless driving, prayer for judgment is to be continued upon the payment of a $25 fine and the cost on further condition that he does not operate a motor vehicle again in six months.

C. B. Vance of Apex pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and was given 90 days on the roads, the term to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the cost.

J. B. Watson, colored, pleaded guilty as to possession of a whiskey still for the purpose of manufacturing illegal whiskey and possession of 2 1-2 gallons of illegal whiskey for sale. He was given four months on the roads, fine $25 and taxed with the cost, the road term to be suspended upon condition that he refrain from violating the alcoholic laws again in two years.

Booker T. Bryant, colored, of Selma drew a 90 day road term for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. The road sentence is to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the cost.

Joe Williams, colored, was given 60 days on the roads for receiving $14.53, knowing it to have been stolen.

Charlie Watson, colored, who was convicted of assault with deadly weapon, was given 60 days on the roads, fined $15, and taxed with the cost, the cost to include $10 for doctor's bill for Charlie Williams.

Donald Stancil, 34, pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and was sentenced to 90 days on the roads, the term to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the cost.

Annie Richardson, charged with assault with deadly weapon was found not guilty.

Deliah Hinnant who was convicted of resisting and interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, was given 90 days in jail. The defendant took an appeal.

Charles Watson, colored, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of bastardy. A six months road term is to be suspended upon the payment of the cost and the payment into court for the use of the child the sum of $8 and $8 on the first of each month until further orders from court. He was required to give a $300 bond to guarantee faithful performance.

Hill Taylor, 34, was sentenced to the roads for a term of six months for abandonment and non-support of his two children. The road term is to

URGENT NEED FOR MEDICAL OFFICERS IN CIVIL SERVICE

The Civil Service Commission announces that enough applications have been received to meet the prospective need for temporary and part-time civilian medical officers in connection with the Army expansion. Receipt of applications will close Monday, October 14.

The commission calls attention to the fact, however, that there is an urgent need for medical officers and senior and associate medical officers to fill permanent positions in other agencies. Applications will be received until further notice. The positions pay from $3,200 to $4,600 a year. Fourteen specialized branches of medicine are included.

There is also an urgent need to fill junior medical officer positions at $2,00 a year at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Washington, D. C.

Full information and application forms for these examinations may be obtained at the office of the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at any first or second class post office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or from and of the commission's district offices.
