

YELLOW JACKETS DEFEAT RED DEVILS

(By GEORGE SUBER)

An inspired swarm of Yellow Jackets from Selma High school beat the daylights out of its traditional rival, Smithfield high, 41-0, in a six-man football game here last Friday.

Led by Johnnie Colones, the locals stayed on the offense all afternoon, scoring at will. Plunging, passing, and broken field running were mixed into a diversified attack that kept Smithfield constantly back on its heels.

Early in the first quarter Colones kicked out of bounds on the Red Devil's one yard line—a beautiful coffin corner punt that traveled fifty yards. With their backs to the wall, Smithfield tried to kick out, but the whole local forward wall rushed the kicker and the ball went out of bounds on the Devil's six-yard line. Colones scored easily and the Selma scoring machine began to roll. Led by speedy Virgil Sullivan, who scored three of Selma's six touchdowns, the Yellow Jackets piled up 41 points against a big zero for Smithfield.

Smithfield was held so well in check that only once did they get as far into local territory as the 35-yard line. There was one big reason for this—Clifton Core—time after time this boy broke through the Red Devil's defense, smearing the ball carrier for tremendous losses. Clifton was a thorn in their offense, ataying in their backfield so much that it almost looked like he was part of it. Smithfield had a bag of trick plays, but with Core in the game—well, those plays just didn't click. Cliff played one whale of a game and deserves a lot of credit because he was the chief instrument used in hanging that big 0 on the Red Devils.

The most spectacular play of the game came in the fourth quarter when Don Brown, playing on pass defense, sensed a Red Devil pass and was "Johnny on the spot" when it was flipped. Speedy Don intercepted that pass and out-footed several Smithfield players in his trip toward. Colones, blocking beautifully all afternoon, clipped the safety man, the only player between Brown and the goal line, and Don went over into pay territory standing up. He returned this interception 40 yards.

Those who saw the game will readily agree that Coach H. W. Broughton's locals were well coached and primed for this, the most important event of the school year.

American Legion Auxiliary Receives Generous Gift

The president of the Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. C. A. Bailey, was recently presented with a gift of $5.00 by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodard which, they explained, was to express their interest in the work of the Selma Unit and to be used in any way the auxiliary thought best. This was a most generous and inspiring gesture loyal and progressive-minded citizens, on the part of two of Selma's most and the auxiliary appreciates and values this gift very highly. It is to be used to purchase some permanent object of use and beauty to be placed in the Auxiliary department of the Legion Hut, where it will always be a reminder to the Auxiliary members and others of the kindness and thoughtfulness of Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, two people who want to see and help Selma grow.

HOG SHIPMENT FROM FOUR OAKS

There will be a cooperative shipment of hogs from the Four Oaks market on Monday, October 28, says County Agent M. A. Morgan. Growers having hogs to ship are asked to notify the county agent's office on or before Thursday, October 24 in order that they may have sufficient help and cars to handle the hogs. It will also be appreciated if you have your hogs in Four Oaks by 1:00 o'clock.

Wall, 50c; Quality Store, 50c; Creech Drug Store, $1; Circle "C", 50c; Mrs. C. E. Kornegay, 75c; Georgia Tuck, 50c.

The money will be turned over to Mr. Tuttle, who is acting as treasurer. He plans to buy wire for the courts.

Strong Lectures At Banner Chapel Church

Banner Chapel community near Benson is being stirred immensely this week by a series of strong lectures by the Lee Brothers, pastor Evangelists, held at Banner Chapel Advent church, which began Monday night, October 21st and continues through Friday night, October 25th. These evangelists are James and Marvin Lee, of Wilmington, N. C., and Augusta, Ga. Services are held each night at 7:30. Their theme for the week is: "The World Today In the Light of Bible Prophecy." Great crowds are attending these services which close tomorrow (Friday) night. Don't miss the next service.

The Lee Brothers say "The present world situation demands a renewed proclamation of the prophetic sureties of the Bible pointing us to the soon coming of the Lord. We will use two large charts to illustrate our Bible messages and there will be singing, praying, testifying and a reaffirmation of the Advent Christian Hope of Second Personal Advent of Christ, the bodily resurrection of the dead, the purification of the earth, and the establishment of God's eternal kingdoms under the whole heavens."

Book Rental Contest Comes To Close

For the fourth and last week in the contest among the teachers in the county in collecting 100 per cent book rentals the following four teachers have collected 100 per cent: Miss Elizabeth Strickland, Clayton school, 11th grade; Miss Melba Cline, Clayton school, 8th grade; Mr. R. F. Autry, Cleveland school, 10th grade; Mr. V. A. Lumley, Cleveland school, 9th grade.

For the four weeks that the contest ran there were 30 teachers in the entire county that succeeded in collecting 100 per cent. These teachers are distributed among the schools as follows:

Kenly 2, Archer Lodge 2, Glendale 1, Four Oaks 1, Pine Level 2, Princeton 1, Selma 1, Smithfield 3, Clayton 5, Wilson's Mills 1, Micro 1, Cleveland 3, Meadow 3, Benson 3, Corinth-Holder 1.

It is interesting to note that not a single teacher teaching any of the first seven grades in school was able to collect 100 per cent during the period of the contest. Thirty-one of the 100 high school grades collected 100 per cent, while none of the 253 elementary grades collected 100 per cent. There were 7 eighth grades; 8 ninth grades; 8 tenth grades; and 8 eleventh grades that collected 100 per cent.

Perhaps the reason for the better collections in the high school, where the rent is higher, is the fact that high school students are old enough to see the necessity of having books to do the work and in many cases make their own money picking cotton and in other ways to pay their rent. The children in the elementary grades, being younger, realize less than the older children the necessity of having books and also have less ways of making their own money. The books are just as necessary, and in many cases more so, in the grades than in the high school. Therefore, the parents and the older brothers and sisters should come to the aid of the younger children by helping them to secure their school books.

Zion Meeting Held At Princeton Church

The zone meeting for this section of the Raleigh district held in Princeton Thursday had a good attendance of representatives from Woman's Societies of Christian Service of the Methodist.

Held in the Methodist church, the session was presided over by Mrs. H. A. Bizzell of Newton Grove, zone leader. Rev. J. W. Bradley, pastor of the Princeton church, led the opening devotional using as the theme the quarter's mission topic—"The Church Serving Shifting Populations."

Mrs. B. F. Boone, conference secretary of missionary education and cultivation, used posters and a skit to present the study topic, "Up-rooted Americans." She reported only 15 states that have Christian centers for this part of our citizenry.

Mrs. Gurney Hood, district secretary, stressed the need of sending in reports on time, and she announced the Week of Prayer—November 3 to 9—when the women should count their blessings and make an offering of thankfulness. The offering this year will be used to endow a choir of Religion, Life, and Thought as Scarritt college in Nashville, Tenn., in honor of Mrs. J. W. Perry, former president of the Woman's Missionary Council.

Miss Mary Gardner of Raleigh, presented the periodicals, "World Outlook," "Methodist Woman" and the "N. C. Christian Advocate."

Mrs. M. P. Young of Princeton welcomed the delegation to Princeton and Mrs. B. B. Adams of Four Oaks gave the response. At the lunch hour, the hostess society supplemented the lunches carried by the visitors with barbecue and hot coffee.

Those attending the meeting in Princeton from Smithfield were Mrs. J. V. Morgan, Mrs. O. H. Patterson, Mrs. C. E. Bingham, Mrs. T. W. Lemay, Mrs. J. R. Poole, Mrs. Albert Stallings, Mrs. C. L. Massey, Mrs. John Bandy, Mrs. W. J. Massey, Jr., and Mrs. Bettie Lee Sanders.—Smithfield Herald.
