Miss Doris Hooks Was Married Sunday
The Kenly Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon, August 3rd, at 5:30 o'clock, when Miss Doris Hooks became the bride of Kinchen Turner Bailey of Kenly.

The Rev. C. E. Clarke performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with green pines, white gladioli and Queen Ann's lace. The altar was flanked on each side by seven-branched candelabra. A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Bertha Edgerton, pianist, with Mr. Jack Stallings and Mr. J. H. Barnes soloists.

Miss Edgerton's numbers included Schubert's "serenade" and "intermezzo". Mr. Stallings sang "Because" and "At Dawning". Mr. Barnes sang "I Love You Truly".

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. Stallings sang "Seal Us O Holy Spirit." Traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Hooks entered the church and was given in marriage by her brother, W. Jack Hooks of Kenly. The groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. T. G. Bailey, of Simms.

The ushers were J. Dobbin Bailey of Kenly, and James Earp of Selma. The bride wore an angel blue silk suit, made Redingote style, with navy taffeta hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was of briarcliff roses and dainty blue baby breath.

Mrs. Bailey is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson Hooks. She is a graduate of E. C. T. C., and for the past few years has taught in the Johnston county schools.

Mr. Bailey attended Wake Forest College where he was a member of the Gammaeta Gamma Fraternity. He is the son of Mrs. Bettie B. Bailey and the late J. Walter Bailey of Kenly.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for an extended wedding trip. After August 8th, they will be at home near Kenly.

WATER AND SEWER CONNECTION ORDINANCE

Whereas, polluted, improperly protected, and unapproved private water supplies, including wells, springs, and cisterns have been the cause of outbreaks of Typhoid Fever and other water born diseases; and
Whereas, such privies, cesspools, and other unapproved means of excreta disposal may be the cause of outbreaks of Typhoid Fever and other filth born diseases; and
Whereas, such undesirable means of excreta disposal are often the cause of nuisances and complaints, due to odors, flies, and filth;

Now be it ordained that:
Section 1. Every person, group of persons, firm or corporation owning a house and lot or building, used for human habitation or occupancy in the Town of Selma, which lot abuts or adjoins a street or alley along which is located a sanitary sewer which is accessible within 200 feet of said lot, and a water line which is accessible within 300 feet of said lot, shall make water and sewer connections with his, her, their, or its house, building, or other place of human habitation or occupancy; provided that no person shall be required to cross the private property of any other person to make such water and sewer connections; provided further that all such connections shall be under the supervision of Supt. Water and Light Dept. and in accordance with the North Carolina State Building Code.

Section 2. No person, group of persons, firm or corporation using a house or building for human habitation or occupancy within the Town of Selma shall continue to use the said house or building after water service has been discontinued by the Town of Selma for non-payment of water rent.

Section 3. No person, group of persons, firm or corporation shall build or remodel any structure used for human habitation or occupancy within the Town of Selma which is not provided with water carried sewage facilities if within 200 feet of a sanitary sewer and 300 feet of a water line.

Section 4. No water or plumbing fixture shall be installed and no building or toilet fixture shall be connected with a public or private sewer line, or private septic tank without first obtaining a plumbing permit. No private septic tank shall be installed until a permit for such installation shall have been issued by the Supt. Water and Light Dept.

Section 5. Any person, group of persons, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, and failing to comply with said provisions within thirty (30) days after written notice of failure of compliance, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $5.00 (five dollars) nor more than fifty dollars ($50) for each offense, or shall be sentenced to not more than 30 (thirty) days in jail. Each day's violation thereafter shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Section 6. This ordinance shall be in effect from and after the date of its passage.

Passed this 8th day of January, 1940.
TOWN OF SELMA,
By Act of Board of Town Commissioners.

NOTICE OF SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina, Johnston County, In the Superior Court Before the Clerk.

Mrs. Nellie Barbour Batts and husband, J. D. Batts, Mary Barbour Pearce and husband, T. C. Pearce, and N. M. Barbour and wife, Ruby Barbour

T. E. Barbour and wife, Esther Barbour, B. H. Barbour and wife, Lucy Barbour, J. O. Barbour and wife, Florence Barbour, B. T. Barbour, widower, and W. D. Barbour and wife, Glenna Barbour, and W. F. Barbour and wife, Mrs. W. F. Barbour

The defendants, J. O. Barbour and B. T. Barbour, above named will take notice that a summons in the above entitled action was issued against said defendants on the 12th day of June, 1941, the plaintiffs above named having commenced in the Superior Court of Johnston County a special Proceeding entitled as above, which summons could not be served upon said defendants for the reason that they were and are non-residents, and the said defendants have failed and refused to accept service of summons; that the said Special Proceeding is for the purpose of establishing the advancements made by J. C. Barbour, deceased, the ancestor of said parties and for partition of the real and personal property of said heirs-at-law of the said J. C. Barbour, deceased, intestate according to law; and the said defendants, J. O. Barbour and B. T. # Rail oddities

ONE TYPE OF LOCOMOTIVE HEADLIGHT USED IN THE 1830'S CONSISTED OF A BONFIRE OF PINE KNOTS BURNING ON THE SAND-COVERED FLOOR OF A SMALL FLAT CAR IN FRONT OF THE LOCOMOTIVE.

AMERICAN RAILROADS SPENT MORE THAN $2 MILLION DOLLARS FOR TIES AND OTHER FOREST PRODUCTS LAST YEAR.

TO HANDLE, BY RAIL, ALL THE INTERCOASTAL FREIGHT CARRIED BY SHIPS THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL, WOULD REQUIRE THE SERVICES OF ONLY ONE PER CENT OF THE FREIGHT CARS NOW IN USE ON THE AMERICAN RAILROADS.
