THE TREND OF THE TIMES . . .

"OLE" Josh was sittin' on a keg in front of Lem's store the other day. Suddenly he looked up and draw'd, "Did you fellers see where the Governor was down to Lumberton last week to help the Carolina Power & Light Company cut in their new steam plant to make electricity? They tell me they don't need any more electricity now. What do you think of that?"

Lem stopped sortin' apples to say, "Yep, they tell me that they don't really need that electricity now, but that they want to be sure they have it when they do need it. That's the trend of the times—don't ever be caught napping."

Lem was right. The trend of the times is don't be caught napping, and that is the reason the beer retailers of North Carolina are cooperating 100 per cent with the Malt Beverage Division of the North Carolina ABC Board. They are cooperating with the Malt Beverage Division to be sure that the people of North Carolina have the kind of retail beer establishments that the General Assembly had in mind when it established the Malt Beverage Division.

Prior Approval On Soil Conservation

By W. F. SNIPES

The 1949 and 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program requires that farmers receive prior approval on each soil conservation practice prior to the time the practice is begun if payment is expected. Each year, we have quite a number of farmers who are not eligible for payment for the reason that they did not take the time to receive prior approval.

By prior approval is meant either coming by the county office or writing to the county PMA office and having the payment established for the practice before the practice is begun. Any farmer who expects to receive an Agricultural Conservation Program Payment for turning under small grains in the spring of 1950 must receive prior approval before the grain is seeded this fall and then have the grain seeded and reported back to the County PMA office by November 1, 1949.

Farmers are cautioned that the applying of phosphate and potash is only a practice provided it is used on certain crops. This practice also includes the potash and phosphate materials contained in mixed fertilizers. Each of these materials that are furnished on the Purchase Order Plan and are used on any other crops other than the ones listed below, will cost the farmer double. Phosphate and potash materials may be used for credit on the following crops:

- Permanent pasture.
 - New seedlings of perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, annual lespedeza, or cro-talaria, seeded alone (not with small grain crop) in the fall of 1949 or during 1950.
 - Perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, or annual lespedeza, seeded in a small grain nurse crop, if the material is applied during the Spring of 1950.
 - Winter legumes or ryegrass seeded with or without a nurse crop.
 - Hay crops, excluding small grain, Sudan grass, and sorghum.
 - Summer legumes grown for cover crops or (except for soybeans and mung beans) for seed for planting.
 - Sover crops in orchards, and
 - Permanent sod waterways.
- We are very anxious that every farmer in the county takes full advantage of this program in building up or maintaining the fertility of the soil; however, we still have a lot of farmers who are not participating with the Agricultural Conservation Program. We urge all farmers to come by the PMA Office in the very near future and have prior approval set up for those practices which they wish to carry out this fall.
