

SOME SUGGESTIVE CLUB PROJECTS

by MRS. ABNA AGGREY LANCASTER

"What shall we do to swell the amount in our treasury? What steps shall we take to increase our funds?" Has your club president ever asked such questions? In reply, another question is asked concerning efforts made by other clubs to raise money. Perhaps more letters from club women describing such activities would prove most beneficial to all clubs struggling with the same problem.

Have you tried having a "Men's Fashion Show"? Then try presenting the well dressed man as he appears at home, at work and at play. Beginning with little boys and their activities and going on through the occupations of adult hood one can use a variety of activities that may require sufficient changes in dress to provide an interesting parade. Appropriate songs for the occasion will add greatly to the program. The hunter, the fisherman, the physician, the cook, gardener; the man at home lounging, at a formal or semi-formal party at a wedding might be included in the costuming and the parade.

Once a year a bazaar is good to have. Contributions of articles made my women and even by men of the community, should be solicited and afterwards displayed attractively for sale. Aprons, pot holders, bed spreads, quilts, embroidered and crocheted articles may be offered for sale. Womanless Weddings being so comical usually attract a crowd. A prize to the best dressed "lady" serves as another interesting feature.

Apron and necktie parties, old fashioned "tacky parties, and "tacky hat" parties are well worth trying. At a recent "tacky Hat" party much of the fun came from the winner of the prize having to wear the hat throughout the evening and also having to wear her comical creation home.

Send in some of your ideas. By sharing our fun, we may add several dollars to the treasury of our clubs.

It Is Not Easy . . .

To apologize,
To begin over,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To admit error,
To face a sneer,
To be charitable,
To keep on trying,
To be considerate,
To avoid mistakes,
To endure success,
To keep out of the rut,
To think and then act,
To forgive and forget,
To make the best of little,
To subdue an unruly temper,
To maintain a high standard,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
To recognize the silver lining—
But it always pays.

MOORE COUNTY CLUBS

in Southern Pines, the fifteen clubs comprising the Moore County Federation, are sharing the responsibility of caring for the State Federation through financial assistance and the opening of their homes to delegates.

The necessary preparation for entertaining the Federation has not hindered the local projects that have been their chief concern since the first clubs were organized. They have not failed to give their financial support to the American Red Cross, the March of Dimes, the Tuberculosis Drive, the Children's Ward at the Sanatorium, the girls of Dobb's Farm, the boys of the Morrison Training School, and the children of the Oxford Orphanage. Aside from state and national funds the clubs have contributed to the sick of their immediate communities, and helped in whatever capacities they were needed.

The meetings were held with every club throughout Moore County. The contacts of local clubs with the County club increased the enthusiasm for the state meeting and brought many new members into the local clubs.

The presidents of the local clubs are as follows: Mrs. L. A. Marks of Southern Pines, Mrs. Tarba T. Brown of Carthage, Mrs. R. B. Crutchfield of Pinehurst, Mrs. Lillie Leak of Jackson Springs, Mrs. L. E. Ferguson of Mount Zion, Mrs. Sylvia McKenny of Eastwood, Mrs. Ollie Harrington of Cameron, Mrs. Catherine Brower of Eagle Springs, Mrs. Ora O'Neil of West End, Mrs. Anna Rose of East Pinehurst, Mrs. Francis Little of Addor, Mrs. Maddie Davis of High Falls, Mrs. Dorothy B. Shaw of Morrison, Mrs. Eliza Coles of Aberdeen,

Daughters of Dorcas Club Song

I

Daughters of Dorcas Lord may we
True Daughters of Dorcas ever be.
Even as Thy servant toiled of old
Humbly working in the Master's fold
Using her needle day by day
Serving her Lord in her own way
Working together in one accord
True Daughters of Dorcas ever be
Seeking always to serve Thee.

II

Daughters of Dorcas day by day
Helping someone along life's way
Speaking a kindly word of cheer
To some soul discouraged here
A cup of water, the widows mite
Both are precious in his sight
So may we work in Thy name
Not for self or earthly gain
True Daughters of Dorcas ever be
Seeking always to serve Thee.

(Words and music by Mrs. M. L. McDouglass)

and Mrs. Charley Brown of Shady Grove.

Through the able leadership of the President of the Charlotte Hawkins Brown Chapter Mrs. Edna B. Taylor, the clubs of Moore County are making final preparation for the state meeting May 19-20. Her tireless efforts, her charming personality, and her insatiable enthusiasm have unified the women of Moore County and made them sincere followers.

The Moore County Federation eagerly awaits your coming and pledges to do all humanly possible to make the annual meeting an experience of joy and profit to each one who shares it.—J. S. Brown.
