

'Get To Know Your Federation Officer'

MRS. E. M. SPELLMAN
President

Born in Elizabeth City — Studied Shaw University — Teachers College — Columbia Univ. Former teacher of Elizabeth City State College. Asst. Supt. of Sun. School, Pres. Missionary Society and Class leader of Mount Lebanon A. M. E. Z. Church. Hold membership in four federated clubs in her city — Sec. of Human Relations committee, acting Girl Scout leader — member of com. on Economic opportunity.

Special interest:—Needy Families
Immediate family:—An aunt, a foster son.

MRS. PLISSIE W. HARRIS
Third Vice President

Born in Durham where she makes her home and did her secondary work at Whitted High School, then to Barbar Scotia College and N. C. College. A homemaker, and member of St. Joseph A. M. E. Church, a member of its Stewardess Board and Ladies Aid Society. Community activities include, Y. W. C. A. — committee on Negro Affairs — Nat'l council Negro Women — Federation of Negro Women with special interest in Bridge — traveling and gardening. One brother and other relatives.

MRS. V. T. BISHOP
Assistant Recording Secretary and Reporter

Was born in Leavenworth, Kansas and attended Armstrong High School in Washington, D. C. and Howard University. A former high school instructor, Creecy School of Rich Square, now retired. Member and organist of First Baptist Church and Leader in Young People Union of Baptist Training Union. Member of A K A Sorority — National Ministers Wives Alliance — Rich Square Book Club — National Assn. of Colored Women's Clubs.

Special interest — Scrap Books — Hobby — Dirt Collecting.

Two daughters, Two sons, 12 grandchildren.

MRS. SALLIE E. HARRIS
Recording Secretary

Born in Durham and attended Whitted High School, then N. C. College. An Elementary School Teacher, now retired.

Baptist Church connection and membership in Utopia Club; Azalea Garden Club; YWCA — Residence Committee and N. C. College Alumni Ass'n. A widow with no children.

MRS. T. O. SATTERWHITE
1st Vice President

Born in Moultrie, Ga. — studied Harnett High and Teachers College, Fayetteville and Boston University. She is now retired after 30 years teaching. Membership with St. John Missionary Baptist Church, Dunn, N. C. and Pres. of the missionary society. At present Matron of her O. E. S. Chapter — a member of Pi Lambda Theta — Pres. of Dunn Women's Club and Vice Pres. of Southeastern District of Federated clubs.

Hobby — Flowers and People
Married to Harry Satterwhite 1919 and Mother of six children.

MRS. ESTHER MOORE
4th Vice President

Born in Sardis, Miss. High School at Sardis Industrial School, then to Spellman College — Columbia Univ. Has taught in public schools and served as residence counselor, and retired. Drafted recently to teach Special Education. A Baptist and working with Junior Missions, member of choir and principal of Vacation Bible School. Member of A. K. A. Sorority — Pres. Women's Club — Pi Lambda Theta and Kappa Delta Pi, honor societies and order of Eastern Star. Have held several appointed offices in Southeastern. Enjoy traveling and writing. Husband — son and two daughters.

Kirkman, trumpet soloist. Both of the artists were from Kinston, North Carolina. They were accompanied on the piano by Mr. C. T. Epps of Ahoskie and Kinston.

Our club is now in the process of purchasing a film projector for the kindergarten.

MRS. A. L. NEWSOME
Financial Secretary

Was born in Ahoskie with High School work at R. L. Vann High School, then to N. C. College; Hampton Institute School of Nursing and Dixie Hospital.

Now General Duty Nursing at Roanoke-Chowan Hospital.

A husband and three sons.

KELSEY

(Continued from Page 4)
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Portia K. Barfield, a teacher in the public schools of Washington, D. C.; W. F. Kelsey, mortician and owner of the Kelsey Funeral Home, Albemarle, North Carolina; Leroy L. Kelsey, mortician and owners of the Kelsey Funeral Home, Concord, North Carolina; M. G. Kelsey, employee of the Veterans Administration Hospital, Salisbury, North Carolina; A. R. Kelsey, owner and mortician, Noble and Kelsey Funeral Home, Salisbury, North Carolina; and Mrs. Lula Marie K. Hairston, a teacher in the public schools of Charlotte, North Carolina.

MRS. ESTHER M. BARNES
Treasurer

Was born in Washington, D. C., she attended 'M' Street High School there and Miner Teachers' College of Washington, D. C.

She has had 37 years of teaching experience and is now a housewife.

She is a member of the Episcopal Church and kept very busy with church and civic work in her city.

She is the wife of Dr. B. W. Barnes.

MRS. RUTH M. PATTILLO
Corresponding Secretary

Born in Elizabeth City. Studied at State Normal School there, then Shaw University with further study at Hampton Institute and Columbia University. Now a retired teacher. Baptist Church and of Matron Social, Literary and Art Club. A son and daughter.

Hobbies — Sewing, flowers.

AHOSKIE CLUB

(Continued from Page 3)

and money to three who were seriously ill.

On February 11, we sponsored a Lincoln's Birthday Dinner. Mr. Linwood Creecy, Principal of W. S. Creecy High School, Rich Square, North Carolina was our guest speaker. Our guest artists were Miss Artena Howell, vocalist, and Mr. Al