We invite your attention to our large and elegant stock of Carpets up stairs, where we have ample space to show them.

Our patterns are very select, and prices shall be made to suit the buyer. Will have them cut and made if you so desire. Come and make your selection before the Stock is broken.

Respectfully,

W. F. ELLIS.

P. S.—Also every department filled with a new and elegant assortment of DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, ETC.

Remember that my Stock is entirely new, having sold out my interest in the late firm of Ellis & Muse.

Very respectfully yours,

W. F. Ellis.

President Cleveland's Reception.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—President Cleveland today received the delegates now in Washington attending the Evangelical alliance. He welcomed the members of the conference with a short address congratulating them upon the good results following their Christian work. About eight hundred delegates called. They were presented individually by President Dodge of the Alliance to the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who shook hands with each and all.

Addressed the Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 9.—Messrs. Hamilton, Stuart and Cremer, members of the British Peace Commission, were introduced to the Virginia Legislature to-day. Mr. Cremer addressed a large audience in the Hall of Delegates to-night and presented the cause in the most forcible manner. The address was well received.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mrs. S. W. Graham, widow of the late Hon. W. A. Graham, was stricken with paralysis at the residence of her son at Charlotte, N. C., a few days ago. At last accounts Mrs. Graham was improving and it was thought she would recover. Major Graham and A. W. Graham left here Monday for Charlotte to be with their mother. Mr. A. W. Graham returned to Hillsboro, Thursday, and from him we learned that his mother was improving. This will be good news to our people, all of whom love this good woman.—Hillsboro, Observer

The Wadesboro Intelligencer says: It does begin to appear that the silk factory will be located in Wadesboro. It seems to be a settled fact. The parties who are at the head of the concern, in Patterson, N. J., were in Wadesboro a few days ago, when a thorough understanding was reached.

Fatal Accident.

A colored man, named Joe Woods, in the employ of the railroad, was badly and fatally crushed Tuesday night while coupling cars, death ensuing immediately. The railroad authorities had his remains neatly encased, and buried yesterday. Woods was from Iredell.—Asheville Citizen.

Five Thousand People Attend Her Funeral.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, December 8.—The funeral rites over the remains of Eliza B. Snow Smith Young were conducted yesterday in Assembly Hall. Five thousand people were present. The floral tributes were many and in various designs. There were eleven speakers, who dwelt on the virtues and high moral character of the dead woman.

At the Market House.

Schwartz, a man born and bred a butcher, is daily extending his business. His trade has grown to extensive proportions and justly so. His meats are always fresh and well butchered and when you send for porter house steak you don't get shank. You get what you order the same as were you present and guided the cutting. He has the patronage of Hotel Claiborn and Mrs. Hopkins' boarding house. Come all, buy of him and get the worth of your money. d10 if
