

Do You Take Time To Count Change?

We live in a changing world, and in that world we are constantly making purchases that require the changing of money.

Watch other New Bernians, and keep tab on yourself. You'll find that the average person in these

Before you blame your typist... take a look at her typewriter!

Maybe it's worn out.
Maybe it just needs aligning.
Maybe it's so out of adjustment that you should let us have it for a thorough reconditioning.

If it isn't the girl's fault it will cost you nothing to have us diagnose the trouble.

parts is so pre-occupied with other matters that the change received is never counted.

Especially is this true when the change involved is less than a dollar. We not only don't count our change, we forget what we gave the clerk to get the change back from. And the clerk, pre-occupied too, is forgetful oftentimes.

Let us hope that everybody is honest, and accurate.
