

It Might Help

Perhaps what all of us need to do is to take from Christmas all the plastic ornaments and foil wrapping, and turn it completely inside out. Then, buried beneath layers of tissue paper and superficial wrappings, we could rediscover the real heart of Christmas.

For Every Age

Christmas belongs, some say, to eager youth—
And childhood finds it bright as gleaming gold;
Yet, grown-ups too enjoy it, for in truth
A heart that sings is never really old.
Who of us could wish for something finer,
In this time of boundless Yuletide mirth;
Than blessings all about us in coastal Carolina,
This friendly land, the grandest spot on earth.
Happy is he whose heart has love to spare,
When Christmas brings its magic charm once more;
And happier still are those with dreams to share,
Who bear their gifts to some forgotten door.
In every home, on every New Bern street,
May holidays be jolly days of pleasure;
May every precious moment be wonderfully complete,
As good times come to you in fullest measure.

The Lord Is Come

Joy to the world, the Lord is come,

Let earth receive her King;
Let little children romp and play,
And song and laughter ring.
Let gratitude ascend new heights,
And selfishness depart;
And kindly thoughts, like

candlelight,
Illuminate each heart.
New Bernians all, by sharing
Our blessings, me and you;
We'll find the Yuletide's happiness
In everything we do.

your hopes and dreams
come true this Christmas!*
